Spatializing Language Studies Sébastien Dubreil, David Malinowski, Hiram H. Maxim, 2023-09-12 This open access volume offers valuable new perspectives on the question of how mobility locatedness and immersion in the physical world can enhance second language teaching and learning It does so through a diverse array of empirical studies of language literacy and culture learning in the linguistic landscape of visible and audible public discourse Written from conceptually rich and disciplinarily varied perspectives its ten chapters address methodological and practical problems of relating language learning to the lived and rapidly changing places of the late modern world Whether it is within the four walls of a school in a nearby multilingual neighborhood in a virtual telecollaborative space or in any other location where languages may be learned this volume highlights different configurations of learning spaces the leveraging of real world places for critical learning and ways to productively dislocate language learners from preconceived notions and standardized experiences Together these elements create conditions for a language and literacy pedagogy that can be said to be robustly spatialized linguistically and culturally complex geographically situated historically informed dialogically realized and socially engaged
