

The background of the poster is a painting of two young Aboriginal girls, Maud and Fanny, huddled together and looking over a barbed wire fence. The sky is a dramatic mix of orange, yellow, and pink, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. A single bird is silhouetted against the sky in the upper right corner. The title 'RABBIT-PROOF FENCE' is written in a large, white, serif font across the middle of the image.

It provides a general introduction to film literacy and explains the rationale, methods, and objectives of working with feature films. In addition, the book contains in-depth considerations on sixteen selected films which are grouped regionally: Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, USA, Great Britain. Each chapter describes the topical focus of the film and its central theme and provides background information on social, historical, political, and geographical issues. A profound analysis of selected scenes lays the foundation for considerations on the teaching potential of the film. In a download section, the chapters are complemented with ready-to-use teaching materials on film-specific aspects: narrative, dramatic, and cinematographic dimensions, which are organised as pre-while-post viewing activities. A glossary on technical terms for film analysis completes the volume. Journalism Practice and Critical Reflexivity Bonita Mason, 2023-07-14 Journalism Practice and Critical Reflexivity is a theoretical and practice-based response to the crisis of mission and credibility in journalism studies that is heightened by online and social media. It describes analyses and offers new approaches and models for critically reflexive journalism research, practice, and education. With specific theoretical and conceptual approaches employed, such as Pierre Bourdieu's reflexive sociology along with the analytical, practice-based, reflective, and narrative techniques of Donald Schön and autoethnography, this book provides possible responses to these crises of purpose and legitimacy and to transformation in Western corporate journalism. With journalists working in mainstream media under increasing pressure, the book considers the possibility of either slowing journalism down or having elements of a more reflexive journalism practice set alongside other routine practices It proposes reciprocity as a core value to guide much investigative and news journalism Scholars and practitioners of journalism researchers and post graduate students interested in journalism critical reflexivity and reflective practice in relevant disciplines can apply the concepts and techniques of critical reflexivity in their own research or teaching Journalists criminologists and others concerned with Indigenous deaths in custody prisons the institutional duty of care social and or legal justice and effective government administration will also find the study rewarding web in each of the following redox reactions indicate the elements that undergo changes in oxidation number and the magnitude of change then identify the element oxidized and reduced as well as the oxidizing agent and reducing agent $\text{a } \text{I}_2 + \text{O}_5 \rightarrow 5\text{CO} + 2\text{I} + 5\text{CO}_2$ oxidation reduction reactions worksheet chemistry libretexts - Jan 08 2023

web chemical reactions in which there is a transfer of electrons from one substance to another are known as oxidation reduction reactions or redox reactions in this unit you will examine the oxidation reduction process and use the oxidation state and oxidation number concepts to identify redox reactions and to keep track of electrons
