doesn't stop her from finding it hard that she doesn't have a best friend at school any more. Not since Lily went off with Kara. She's not one to get down about things though and things start to look up when Nadima comes into their classroom. Before long the girls are firm friends even when Nadima, recently arrived from Syria, can't speak much English. The path of true friendship doesn't run smooth though. Jaz, ever the entrepreneur, cooks up a plan to sell Turkish Delight at school with disastrous results. A drama project with Nadima about family history proves impossible to manage. And Charity Challenge Week puts the icing on the cake as Jaz puts every foot wrong possible. Can she find a way to put things right and restore the wonderful and unique friendship that she has with Nadima? In a story of friendship, family, and entrepreneurial wizardry, Cas Lester deftly navigates the trials and tribulations of girlhood and examines with the lightest of touches and gentle humour the thorny and compelling issues of integration, belonging, and identity.

Hot Chocolate in June: A True Story of Loss, Love and Restoration Holly Mithethwa, 2014-03-31 Under-qualified and overly ambitious Holly left her family and friends behind in Nebraska to search for that radical life that all for Jesus or nothing at all. Escaping the depression that chased her following her father's untimely and agonizing death, this young accountant-turned-adventurer trekked to remote mountain villages and through city streets smelling of human excrement all in search of a Father's love. Thousands of miles from the only home she'd ever known, Holly discovered a deeper passion for her God while sharing the gospel in India and soothing abandoned babies in South Africa. God made sure that Holly also encountered Oscar. This handsome South African rugby player seemed to have everything Holly had been praying for in a husband, except for the small detail that he didn't look like any of the other guys she'd dated before Oscar, as the son of parents who had lived through racial segregation and apartheid, was not supposed to bring home a woman whose skin matched the color of the people his parents had served. And this small-town Midwestern girl wasn't supposed to fall in love with a black man either. Hot Chocolate in June is the true story of God's undeniable ability to mend emotional wounds, overcome racial and cultural differences, and write amazing adventure stories. Join Holly as she navigates her way through deep grief and loss only to discover the sweetness of love and restoration.
