What Do I Need to Know About the Passage?

James 3:1-18

Once again, context is important. James has been developing the theme of living a complete and mature Christian life – one that puts faith into practice. He's already focused on several areas where there's a sizable gap between what we believe and how we act. Speech is next on the list.

The Tongue's Power to Affect Others (3:1-2)

There seems to be no clear reason why James begins his discussion with those desiring to be teachers other than it simply needed to be addressed in his reading audience. Whatever his reason, the teaching is clear. Those who aspire to maturity, and to be teachers of God's Word, have a greater responsibility to watch what they say because more people are listening. We're in no immediate danger from, say, heretical truck drivers or night watchmen, but an errant teacher on the other hand (e.g., a Pharisee) is extremely dangerous.

The Tongue's Power to Corrupt and Lead Astray (3:3-6)

In 3:1-2, James is speaking to those who would teach, concerned with the power the tongue has on listeners. In verses 3-6, he focuses on the tongue's power to corrupt and lead the life astray. The study raises this question: do tongues simply verbalize a corrupt heart or is an uncontrolled tongue responsible for corrupting our heart and life? Both are true. Our heart certainly affects our speech, but what we say inflames the heart. For example, words we release in rage certainly add fuel to our anger.

The study diverges from the text and moves to Proverbs 26. The book of Proverbs lies in the backdrop of James, so the excursion is quite appropriate. There is an abundance of Proverbs that relate in some way to the tongue. The Study does not attempt to focus on any particular proverb, but to expose the group to the great wealth of teaching on the tongue found here.

As Proverbs 26 makes clear, the tongue is not only the "rudder" or "bit" that drives our life, it also affects all of our relationships. Conducting our relationships with an unchecked tongue is like running with a pair of scissors, putting people, friends and relationships in jeopardy.

What's the Big Idea?

This study looks at the doubleness of speech, or "forked-tongue," of a believer, where words are out of alignment with his profession of faith.

Wisdom is the solution. Wisdom is a oneness of life, where belief and action are fully integrated. That wisdom is found in Christ.

What's the Problem?

Our sinfulness expresses itself in a doubleness of life, speech, thought and actions. The opposite of this doubleness (wisdom) integrates life (brings into one) and orders it under God.

Untouched Innocence Christine Adrow,2022-01-14 We have heard some ministers say that it is your belief that will send you to hell and not your sins and this can be misleading Because some of you might be deceived into thinking that you can keep sinning as long as you believe there is a God Not only are some of you living your lives to reflect that kind of thinking you are expressing it from your mouth If one does not repent and remove from him his sins he does not profit his soul any good thing Remember repenting is part of the process to become sanctified All sins big and small shall be repented of and forgiven And remember also have you forgiven so that your sins can be forgiven you also It all works together for your salvation to be intact If you die with any of these sins still part of you which you have not bothered to repent off my Bible tells me that you cannot enter the kingdom of God Think about this if you really believe there is a God and there is you are going to come to a point where you are going to not want to sin before Him and get right with Him You re going to judge your own self because your conscience is going to weigh you down Don t focus on the sugarcoated babblings of man and his weak human wisdom but do focus on the precious bloodshed mercy of Jesus Those sins that yield short lived pleasure are only temporary and lead directly to the gates of hell but your salvation leads directly to Jesus through eternity Be on the safe side just repent and get right with God It is the only way This book was written for personal enrichment and Christian training It gives the reader clear easy instructions and Scripture references for the reader to research This book appeals to young people to make that change in their lives that Jesus is calling for There is also a worksheet to help the reader interact with the book If you would like to give me your thoughts about the book and whether it answered any of your concerns send them at Christine adrow gmail com
