Cleaner, Greener, Healthier David R. Boyd, 2015-09-01 Despite Canada's enduring image as a natural paradise every year thousands of Canadians become ill or die prematurely as a result of exposure to environmental hazards Canadians understand that their health is inextricably linked to the health of the environment and are deeply concerned about the impacts of toxic substances on themselves and their children In Cleaner Greener Healthier David R Boyd sets out to remedy Canada's environmental health problems He begins by assessing the environmental burden of disease identifies its unequal distribution along racial and socio economic lines and estimates the associated economic costs He then compares Canadian environmental laws and policies with those in the United States Australia and the European Union delivering a provocative diagnosis of the root causes of Canada's second rate standards Finally drawing on strategies that protect citizens in other countries Boyd prescribes legal remedies that will enable Canada to catch up with the world's environmental leaders while delivering substantial health and economic benefits

The Routledge Handbook of Taxation and Philanthropy Henry Peter, Giedre Lideikyte Huber, 2021-12-24 The Routledge Handbook of Taxation and Philanthropy ventures into a territory that is still widely unexplored It contains 30 academic contributions that aim to provide a better understanding of whether why and how philanthropic initiatives understood as voluntary contributions for the common good can and should be fostered by states through tax incentives The topic has been addressed from a multidisciplinary and multicultural perspective covering neuroeconomics sociology political science psychology affective sciences philosophy behavioral economy and law because of its global and multifaceted nature It also contains the OECD report on Taxation and Philanthropy released in November 2020 which was prepared in this context as a result of a collaboration with the Geneva Centre for Philanthropy of the University of Geneva The book is divided into four sections exploring respectively the justification of tax incentives for philanthropy theoretical and empirical insights about taxes efficiency and donor behavior in that context and tax incentives for cross border philanthropy and for hybrid entities and social entrepreneurship It is believed that this volume will be a landmark yet only the beginning of a journey in which a lot remains to be studied learned and said Insights in the Economics of Aging David A. Wise,2017-03-20 The fraction of the population over age sixty five in many developed countries is projected to rise in some cases sharply in coming decades This has drawn growing interest to research on the health and economic circumstances of individuals as they age Many individuals are retiring from paid work yet they are living longer than ever Their well being is shaped by their past decisions such as their saving behavior as well as by current and future economic conditions health status medical innovations and a rapidly evolving landscape of policy incentives and supports The contributions to Insights in the Economics of Aging uncover how financial physical and emotional well being are integrally related The authors consider the interactions between financial circumstances in later life such as household savings and home ownership physical circumstances such as health and disability and emotional well being including happiness and mental health The Future of the Professions

Richard Susskind,Daniel Susskind,2022-03-31 This book predicts the decline of today s professions and introduces the people and systems that will replace them In an internet enhanced society according to Richard Susskind and Daniel Susskind we will neither need nor want doctors teachers accountants architects the clergy consultants lawyers and many others to work as they did in the 20th century The Future of the Professions explains how increasingly capable technologies from telepresence to artificial intelligence will place the practical expertise of the finest specialists at the fingertips of everyone often at no or low cost and without face to face interaction The authors challenge the grand bargain the arrangement that grants various monopolies to today s professionals They argue that our current professions are antiquated opaque and no longer affordable and that the expertise of their best is enjoyed only by a few In their place they propose five new models for producing and distributing expertise in society The book raises profound policy issues not least about employment they envisage a new generation of open collared workers and about control over online expertise they warn of new gatekeepers in an era when machines become more capable than human beings at most tasks With a new preface exploring recent critical developments this updated edition builds on the authors groundbreaking research into more than a dozen professions Illustrated with numerous examples from each this is the first book to assess and question the relevance of the professions in the 21st century Insurance Law in Mexico Yves Hayaux-du-Tilly,2020-08-19 Derived from the renowned multi volume
