Sex and Sexuality in China Elaine Jeffreys, 2007-01-24 Elaine Jeffreys explores the issues of sex and sexuality in a non Western context by examining debates surrounding the emergence of new sexual behaviours and the appropriate nature of their regulation in the People's Republic of China Commissioned from Western and mainland Chinese scholars of sex and sexuality in China the chapters in this volume are marked by a diversity of subject material and theoretical perspectives but turn on three related concerns First the book situates China's changing sexual culture and the nature of its governance in the socio political history of the PRC Second it shows how China's shift to a rule of law has generated conflicting conceptions of citizenship and the associated rights of individuals as sexual citizens Finally the book demonstrates that the Chinese state does not operate strictly to repress sex it also is implicated in the creation of new spaces for sexual entrepreneurship expertise and consumption This comprehensive study is a valuable resource for scholars in the fields of sexuality studies and post socialist societies and culture directly appealing to both East Asia and China specialists

Beyond My Reach M. E. Sapphire, 2003 An endeavor of love is the only way to aptly depict the motivation and deep love flowing from her heart into this poetry compilation from the outside to the inside Beyond My Reach is unique in that it was written from the free world to an incarcerated lover With much love more than 200 poems were written to express the intense love thriving within this lonely sweetheart during the last four years the length of their heated romance from a distance Ms Sapphire's amorous declarations of devotion were the only inspiration needed to profess her passion and write the first poem I Close My Eyes She never imagined then the poetry would someday amass into a quantity great enough to fill a book Written solely to verbalize new emotions of love each poem in this book was inspired by one young man confined behind tall concrete walls and razor wire of the penal system BEYOND THE WALLS Each day you face a dismal existence Wondering what s beyond that prison wall So many youthful years you ve wasted What made you err you barely recall Double locked doors quarantine your life In triple layered concrete cages Tall dual fences loops of razor wire Stand sentinel over inmates of all ages Incarceration has taken a deadly toll on you Never trusting dreading each new dawn Privacy embezzled by constant vigilance Leaves you silent fearful and withdrawn The world is soon forgotten behind the walls As you obey endless ever changing rules Constantly watching your back danger lurks Fearing brawls protecting your family jewels Being an inmate with untainted record Double locked doors will surely open for you Living on the outside can soon resume You ve learned your lesson freedom is overdue Your true love awaits you beyond those walls When you re thrust from that dismal womb Born again to embark on a new journey You ll emerge from your dungeon of doom March 12 2001 For more information please go to the www.mesapphire.com

On the Other Side(s) of 150 Linda M. Morra, Sarah Henzi, 2021-05-20 On the Other Side s of 150 explores the different literary historical and cultural legacies of Canada s sesquicentennial celebrations It asks vital questions about the ways that histories and stories have been suppressed and invites consideration about what happens once a commemorative moment has passed Like a Cubist painting this modality offers a critical strategy by which also to approach the volume as dismantling reassembling and re enacting existing commemorative tropes as offering multiple conditional and contingent viewpoints that unfold over time and as generating a broader although far from being comprehensive range of counter memorial performances The chapters in this volume are thus provisional interconnected and adaptive they offer critical assemblages by which to approach commemorative narratives or showcase lacunae therein by which to return to and intervene in ongoing readings of the past from the present moment and by which not necessarily to resolve but rather to understand the troubled and troubling narratives of the present moment Contributors propose that these preoccupations are not a means of turning away from present concerns but rather a means of grappling with how the past informs or is shaped to inform them and how such concerns are defined by immediate social contexts and networks
