

Literary Devices used for Storytelling

EnglishLeaflet.com

1 Foreshadowing

A literary technique used by the authors to hint the future events in a story. It develops excitement in the readers, raises expectations and building suspense about what is happen next.

2 Flashback

A literary device that involves the insertion of past theme or event into the current narrative timeline. Flashback is used to provide reference of the characters or events.

3 Imagery

It involves the use of evocative and expressive language to create mental pictures for the readers. It appeals to the senses and involves visual, auditory, tactile, olfactory and gustatory descriptions.

4 Symbolism

This literary device is used to represent ideas and qualities beyond their literal sense. These symbols are in shape of objects, characters, figures and colors that set up broader concepts.

5 Metaphor

In metaphor, a word or a phrase is put on an object or an action which it is not really applied to. This literary device is a kind of comparison between two unrelated subjects without using the words "like" and "as".

6 Alliteration

Alliteration is a literary technique, where words are used in close proximity and start with the same consonant sound.

7 Irony

Irony is a literary device where the intended meaning of words is different from the actual meaning. The outcome of a situation is contrary to what one might expect.

8 Personification

Personification is used to give human qualities, characteristics and actions to non-human entities, such as animals, objects and abstract concepts.

Other Voices Graham H. Roberts, 2011-01-18 This volume highlights the diversity and complexity of cultural dialogue between Russia and Western Europe since the end of the eighteenth century Part one contains contributions which focus on how these cultures have viewed each other There are chapters on the myth of Dumas p re in Russia the Russian travelogues of Henry Lansdell Konstantin Leont ev s views on Great Britain and France and the Russian Symbolists construction of a mythical European past Authors in the second part compare the account of the year 1793 in novels by Hugo Dickens and Dostoevsky and the representation of female beauty by Bunin and Proust Part three looks at ways in which these different cultures have influenced each other Subjects include echoes of French Impressionism in Soviet painting John McGahern s rewriting of a Tolstoy play and actress Renata Litvinova s reworking of the story of Marguerite Gauthier from La Dame aux Camélias The subject of part four is the actual physical encounters between Russia and Western Europe There are contributions on Karamzin s experiences in revolutionary Alsace the impression on Russian national consciousness made by invading French soldiers in 1812 and the experiences of leading French migrants in inter war Paris , Anne Tyler Paul Bail,1998-10-15 Anne Tyler s novels strike a deep chord of responsiveness in her readers because her novels bring to life contemporary characters to whom we can instantly relate and in whose experiences we can see mirrored our own Tyler s novels deal with the human experience relationships between marital partners between parents and children between siblings the meaning of love the nature of identity impermanence and change and loss and continuity In Anne Tyler novels life is a complexity whose texture is built out of multiple layers In this insightful study Paul Bail shows us how Tyler constructs the complex reality of life through character narrative point of view theme and literary devices With the exception of Tyler s earliest two novels which she prefers to forget a chapter is devoted to each of the other novels she has written Among the twelve are her unforgettable novels of family relationships and love loss and renewal such as Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant The Accidental Tourist and Breathing Lessons Also included is an analysis of Tyler s most recent novel A Patchwork Planet Following a biographical chapter that relates Tyler s life to her work Bail discusses the novels within the literary tradition of Southern regional literature women s literature and popular culture He also explores the influence of religion on her writing Each novel is discussed in an individual chapter that includes sections on plot characters themes literary devices historical setting and point of view Bail also offers an alternate critical approach from which to read the novel such as feminist or multicultural criticism This study is ideal for students and readers of Anne Tyler and will enrich the reading and appreciation of her novels
