

Stimulus 2 (Creative Writing Task)

Stimulus: "I couldn't see what was in the box, but I knew that it was important."

The birds were chanting their chorus, with the sun glistening over the surface of the beach. I stood there for an immeasurable amount of time, admiring nature's true beauty. It was the usual day in Sunfire Valley, every morning I woke up, feeling a new sense of beauty that nature had to offer. With my eyes wide open, I stared intensely at the waves, graciously carrying irregular pieces of sand. Taking off my shoes, I began to walk towards the edge of the water, instantly, the damp sand began to create a mould around my feet. My footprints followed me across the sand as I make my way to the shore. I could feel myself sinking into the depths of the sand.

Hours went by, the sky swallowed the sun as evening fell. Sitting on the beach, felt like I was millions of kilometres away from home, I could stay here all day. As time went by, the sea became more and more silent, the white pebbles that covered the sand resembled prehistoric eggs. A cool wind swept passed my cheeks, as I opened my mouth to take a breath, the scent of seawater tickled my nose and I could taste the saltiness of ocean. There was a multitude of sandcastles, which was dissolved by the waves leaving no sign of the children's effort. The beach was deserted, dark and silent. The water is turquoise where its shallow, and dark blue where its deep.

Putting on my shoes, I travel back the way I entered the beach. The further I walked away from the beach, the farther I felt from home. I climbed up the wooden, spiral staircase staring back at the magnificent beach. The sun was setting on the horizon, creating the reflection of the orange sky that shined above.

Suddenly, I hear a loud-wailing sound that echoed throughout the street and pierces the silence of the night. I see the red and blue lights, flashing through the thick fog of the night.

I see the red and blue lights, flashing through the thick fog of the night. I see the red and blue lights, flashing through the thick fog of the night. I see the red and blue lights, flashing through the thick fog of the night. I see the red and blue lights, flashing through the thick fog of the night.

Teacher Tenure Ovid K. Wong, Chak Lau, 2015-12-31 What is tenure It is a policy which gives teachers a permanent contract ensuring them a guarantee of employment like for life Tenured teachers cannot be fired unless for just cause such as gross misconduct or incompetence Proponents of teacher tenure say that it is good They argue that tenure prevents teachers from being fired for inappropriate reasons tenure protects teachers from false accusations tenure reduces teacher anxiety and allows them to become even better educators properly used tenure creates an environment where teachers are encouraged to improve and lastly tenure protects good but veteran teachers from being fired for being too expensive Opponents of teacher tenure say that it is bad They argue that tenured teachers if they are ineffective are often extremely difficult to dismiss dismissing tenured teachers takes a long time and is often extremely expensive almost every k 12 teacher receives tenure whether they have earned it or not and last but not least teacher tenure leads to complacency The purpose of the book is not to further debate the pros and cons of teacher tenure Rather it examines the critical elements to better prepare teachers for the tenure application and the tenure decision makers to make better informed evaluation Teacher Tenure An Analysis of the Critical Elements begins with an unlikely introduction of a story that uses rhetorical comparison of the shoe experience to connote the wisdom of the teacher tenure process Research in Education ,1971 How to Prepare Your Students for Standardized Tests Julia Jasmine, 1997 A guide for teachers to help intermediate students develop the skills to take and do their best on standardized assessment tests

Context and Culture in Language Teaching

Claire Kramsch, 1993-06-17 This book takes cultural knowledge in language learning not only as a necessary aspect of communicative competence but as an educational objective in its own right If the aim of foreign language education is to foster cross cultural awareness and self realization language pedagogy needs to come to grips with a range of fundamental issues what do we mean by cultural context Can discourse practices be taught like rules of grammar What role does literature play in the development of second language literacy How can learners acquire both an insider s and an outsider s understanding of the foreign culture as expressed through its language By exploring these and other issues the book can help language teachers reflect on their profession and place it within its larger societal and educational context In turn they can help learners become not only skilful users of the language but also active architects of a new cross cultural world order
