population centers and engage in commercial activities As their desire for wealth grows they discard spiritual and creative values Their greed leads to distrust and dishonesty and eventually the society crumbles In The Law of Civilization and Decay 1895 Adams noted that as new population centers emerged in the west centers of world trade shifted from Constantinople to Venice to Amsterdam to London He predicted in America's Economic Supremacy 1900 that New York would become the center of world trade Adams was a great grandson of John Adams a grandson of John Quincy Adams the youngest son of U S diplomat Charles Francis Adams and brother to Henry Adams philosopher historian and novelist whose theories of history were influenced by his work His maternal grandfather was Peter Chardon Brooks the wealthiest man in Boston at the time of his death He was elected a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1918 In 1889 Adams married Evelyn Davis the daughter of Admiral Charles Henry Davis They did not have children Evelyn Davis's sister Anna was the wife of Henry Cabot Lodge Her sister Louisa was the wife of John Dandridge Henley Luce the son of Stephen Luce The

The EMANCIPATION of MASSACHUSETTS the Dream and the Reality Brooks Adams,2013-06-25 I wrote this little volume more than thirty years ago since when I have hardly opened it Therefore I now read it almost as if it were written by another man and I find to my relief that on the whole I think rather better of it than I did when I published it Indeed as a criticism of what were then the accepted views of Massachusetts history as expounded by her most authoritative historians I see nothing in it to retract or even to modify I do however somewhat regret the rather acrimonious tone which I occasionally adopted when speaking of the more conservative section of the clergy Not that I think that the Mathers for example and their like did not deserve all or indeed more than all I ever said or thought of them but because I conceive that equally effective strictures might have been conveyed in urbaner language and as I age I shrink from anything akin to invective even in what amounts to controversy Therefore I have now nothing to alter in the Emancipation of Massachusetts viewed as history though I might soften its asperities somewhat here and there but when I come to consider it as philosophy I am startled to observe the gap which separates the present epoch from my early middle life equilibrium and with which man is doomed eternally and hopelessly to contend For human society to deserve the name of civilization must be an embodiment of order or must at least tend toward a social equilibrium I take as an illustration of my meaning the development of the domestic relations of our race I assume it to be generally admitted that possibly man s first and probably his greatest advance toward order and therefore toward civilization was the creation of the family as the social nucleus As Napoleon said when the lawyers were drafting his Civil Code Make the family responsible to its head and the head to me and I will keep order in France
