Hayden, 2003-04-29 In the tradition of David Pelzer's A Child Called It comes the unsettling story of a mute almost catatonic seven year old and the special education teacher who tries to save her from the silence and abuse of her world Hayden has chronicled experiences from her long career as a special education teacher in several books including One Child and The Tiger's Child. Successes in this difficult and often frustrating field can be few and hard won a fact which Hayden deftly illustrates while simultaneously offering hope and joy in small victories. This time she brings to life the story of a scruffy seven year old Venus who is so unresponsive that Hayden searches for signs of deafness brain damage or mental retardation. The author is relentless in her attempt to diagnose the cause of Venus's almost catatonic state which is punctuated by occasional violent outbursts. In this first person narrative Hayden also shares her own thoughts worries and reflections on the strained relationship with a mismatched classroom aide creating a rich tapestry of the dynamics of a group of special needs youngsters and the adults who try to help them.

Murphy's Boy Torey Lynn Hayden, 1983-12 When Torey Hayden first met fifteen year old Kevin he was barricaded under a table desperately afraid of everything around him. Charming charismatic four year old Drake will speak only in private to his mother while his tough unbending grandfather's demands for an immediate cure threatens to cause irreparable harm. And though she had never worked with adults Hayden agrees to help fearful and silent eighty two year old massive stroke victim Gerda discovering in the process that a treatment's successes could prove nearly as heartbreaking as its limitations.

Somebody Else's Kids Torey Hayden, 1982-08-01 Were all just somebody else's kids. A small seven year old boy who couldn't speak except to repeat weather forecasts and other people's words. A beautiful little girl of seven who had been brain damaged by terrible parental beatings and was so ashamed because she couldn't learn to read. A violently angry ten year old who had seen his stepmother murder his father and had been sent from one foster home to another. A shy twelve year old from a Catholic school which put her out when she became pregnant. What do we matter? Why do you care? They were four problem children put in Torey Hayden's class because no one else knew what to do with them. Together with the help of a remarkable teacher who cared too much to ever give up they became almost a family able to give each other the love and understanding they had found nowhere else.
