Capitalist Networks and Social Power in Australia and New Zealand Georgina Murray, 2017-09-29 It is often asserted that the ruling elite in Western capitalist economies now consists of liberal intellectuals and their media sympathisers By contrast this book looks at the real elite in Australian and New Zealand society and shows that there is still a ruling class based upon economic dominance From an analysis of corporate and public records interviews and other primary and secondary data it develops a picture of networks of power that are changing but are as real as any network in the past Controlling Market Power in Telecommunications Damien Geradin, Michel Kerf, 2003 Controlling market power is a crucial issue in liberalised telecommunications markets By comparatively analysing five countries this book explores how the regulatory framework Global Telecoms Tax Profiles ,1998 Economic Regulation and Its Reform Nancy L. should be designed Rose, 2014-08-29 The past thirty years have witnessed a transformation of government economic intervention in broad segments of industry throughout the world Many industries historically subject to economic price and entry controls have been largely deregulated including natural gas trucking airlines and commercial banking However recent concerns about market power in restructured electricity markets airline industry instability amid chronic financial stress and the challenges created by the repeal of the Glass Steagall Act which allowed commercial banks to participate in investment banking have led to calls for renewed market intervention Economic Regulation and Its Reform collects research by a group of distinguished scholars who explore these and other issues surrounding government economic intervention Determining the consequences of such intervention requires a careful assessment of the costs and benefits of imperfect regulation Moreover government interventions may take a variety of forms from relatively nonintrusive performance based regulations to more aggressive antitrust and competition policies and barriers to entry This volume introduces the key issues surrounding economic regulation provides an assessment of the economic effects of regulatory reforms over the past three decades and examines how these insights bear on some of today s most significant concerns in regulatory policy Competition Law in New Zealand Rex Ahdar, 2020-08-21 The modern era of competition law in New Zealand began with the Commerce Act 1986 Since then a steady and impressive corpus of case law had traversed all the usual major areas of antitrust law cartels resale price maintenance exclusive dealing tying group boycotts monopolization mergers and acquisitions exempted sectors and the role of economic evidence This volume explains the rationale for the various major reforms the ongoing contestation between the Harvard and Chicago Schools of antitrust and traces the developments of key concepts over the last 34 years This title also explores systemic issues such as how well has New Zealand moulded its own competition law whilst nonetheless selectively drawing upon the policies case law and wisdom of foreign jurisdictions how effectively has it faced the challenge of adapting its fledgling competition law to the reality of being a small deregulated open and distant economy and how successful was the application of competition law to utilities in the experimental era of light handed regulation Written by a New Zealand competition expert this detailed original and comprehensive chronicle of New Zealand's competition law and policy draws together the common threads that mark the modern era and offers some predictions about how the next decades of New Zealand competition law might unfold Media Law in New Zealand Ursula Cheer, 2020-06-21 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this analysis of media law in New Zealand surveys the massively altered and enlarged legal landscape traditionally encompassed in laws pertaining to freedom of expression and regulation of communications Everywhere a shift from mass media to mass self communication has put enormous pressure on traditional law models An introduction describing the main actors and salient aspects of media markets is followed by in depth analyses of print media radio and television broadcasting the Internet commercial communications political advertising concentration in media markets and media regulation Among the topics that arise for discussion are privacy cultural policy protection of minors competition policy access to digital gateways protection of journalists sources standardization and interoperability and liability of intermediaries Relevant case law is considered throughout as are various ethical codes A clear comprehensive overview of media legislation case law and doctrine presented from the practitioner's point of view this book is a valuable time saving resource for all concerned with media and communication freedom Lawyers representing parties with interests in New Zealand will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative media law Periodicals in Print, Australia, New Zealand & Papua New Guinea ,1994 Periodicals in Print: Australia, New Zealand & the South Pacific Isa Australia Staff,1997 Annual Report Australia. Department of Transport and Communications, 1990 Index to Foreign Production and Commercial Reports United States. Bureau of International Commerce, 1968 Geographies Mike Crang, Phil Crang, Jon May, 2013-04-15 This book examines the interrelationship between telecommunications and tourism in shaping the nature of space place and the urban at the end of the twentieth century They discuss how these agents are instrumental in the production of homogenous world spaces and how htese in turn presuppose new kinds of political and cultural identity Virtual Geographies explores how new communication technologies are being used to produce new geographies and new types of space Leading contributors from a wide range of disciplines including geography sociology philosophy and literature investigate how visions of cyberspace have been constructed offer a critical assessment of the status of virtual environments and geographies explore how virtual environments reshape the way we think and write about the world This book sets recent technological developments in a historical and geographical perspective to offer a clearer view of the new vistas ahead Latin American Telecommunications Gabriela Martinez, 1955-01-01 Latin American Telecommunications Telef nica's Conquest offers an excellent overview of the political economic and social factors in Spain and Latin America that have aided the miraculous transformation of the semi public Spanish telecommunications company Telef nica What was once a national telephone company lagging behind its Western European counterparts has evolved into a global telecommunications giant conquering most of the Latin American telecom market By examining the beginnings of Telef nica as an ITT subsidiary as well as its nationalization under Franco s regime and its later privatization in recent years this book provides insight into the institutional growth as well as geographical expansion of this company especially in Latin America where all state run telecommunications enterprises became privatized throughout the 1990s and many were bought by Telef nica This book is unique because it brings Telef nica's media integration to the fore tracing and analyzing its many assets and partnerships which range from television and film studios to multiplatform media content production and distribution companies Telef nica s close ties with Endemol Disney and Bertelsmann among others are examined in detail FCC Record United States.
