COVID-19 and Existential Positive Psychology (PP2.0): The New Science of Self-Transcendence Paul T. P.

Wong,Claude-Hélène Mayer,Gökmen Arslan, In the era of COVID 19 many people have suffered high levels of stress and mental health problems To cope with the widespread of suffering physical psychological social and economical the positive psychology of personal happiness is no longer the sole approach to examine personal wellbeing Other approaches such as Viktor Frankl s theory of self transcendence provide a promising framework for research and intervention on how to achieve resilience wellbeing and happiness through overcoming suffering and self transcendence The existential positive psychology of suffering complements the positive psychology of happiness which is championed by Martin Seligman as two equal halves of the circle of wellbeing and optimal mental health This Research Topic aims to examine the different approaches to Positive Psychology and their influence on individual wellbeing during the COVID 19 era One of the exciting development in the positive psychology of wellbeing is the mounting research on the adaptive benefits of negative emotions such as shame guilt and anger as well as the dialectical process of balancing negative and positive emotions As an example based on all the empirical research and Frankl s self transcendence model Wong has developed the existential positive psychology of suffering PP2 0 as the foundation for flourishing Here are a few main tenets of PP2 0 1 Life is suffering and a constant struggle throughout every stage of development 2 The search for self transcendence is a primary motive guided by the meaning mindset and mindful mindset 3 Wellbeing cannot be sustainable without overcoming and transforming suffering In this Research Topic we welcome diverse approaches discussing the following points The dialectic process of overcoming the challenges of every stage of development as necessary for personal growth and self transcendence The role of self transcendence in resilience virtue meaning and happiness The upside of negative emotions The new science of resilience based on cultivating the resilient mindset and character How to make the best use of suffering to achieve out potentials mental health #Journalism4.0 #Joernalistiek4.0 Lizette Rabe,2018-03-01 Stellenbosch University s Department of Journalism celebrates its 40th anniversary with this publication reflecting on the four decades between 1978 and 2018 and all that happened behind 26 Crozier Street s front door But in essence it celebrates a lot more It is an assessment of the importance of the media s essential role in a democracy This collection of essays therefore is a celebration of the inalienable right of freedom of expression especially in the form of media freedom A House of Prayer for All People David K. Seitz,2017-11-01 Perhaps an unlikely subject for an ethnographic case study the Metropolitan Community Church of Toronto in Canada is a large predominantly LGBT church with a robust and at times fraught history of advocacy While the church is often riddled with fault lines and contradictions its queer and faith based emphasis on shared vulnerability leads it to engage in radical solidarity with asylum seekers pointing to the work of affect in radical coalition politics A House of Prayer for All People maps the affective dimensions of the politics of citizenship at this church For nearly three years David K Seitz regularly attended services at MCCT He paid special attention to how community and citizenship are formed in a primarily queer Christian organization focusing on four contemporary struggles debates on race and gender in religious leadership activism around police minority relations outreach to LGBT Christians transnationally and advocacy for asylum seekers Engaging in debates in cultural geography queer of color critique psychoanalysis and affect theory A House of Prayer for All People stages innovative reparative encounters with citizenship and religion Building on queer theory s rich history of subjectless critique Seitz calls for an improper queer citizenship one that refuses liberal identity politics or national territory as the ethical horizon for sympathy solidarity rights redistribution or intimacy Improper queer citizenship he suggests depends not only on good politics but also on people s capacity for empathy integration and repair Immersive Journalism
