Kadam: Stages of the Path, Mind Training, and Esoteric Practice, Part One Jamgon Kongtrul Lodro Taye,2024-04-02 A comprehensive selection of texts central to the Kadam lineage of Tibetan Buddhism including topics like Mind Training Stages of the Path and esoteric tantric instructions The Treasury of Precious Instructions by Jamg n Kongtrul Lodr Taye one of Tibet s greatest Buddhist masters is a shining jewel of Tibetan literature presenting essential teachings from the entire spectrum of practice lineages that existed in Tibet In its eighteen volumes Kongtrul brings together some of the most important texts on key topics of Buddhist thought and practice as well as authoring significant new sections of his own The

Kadam lineage derives from the teachings and practices taught by the Indian master Atiśa and his Tibetan students. Atiśa spent twelve years in Tibet and left a scholarly and devotional lineage that would be significant to all traditions of Tibetan Buddhism but particularly the Geluk tradition of the Dalai Lamas which fashioned themselves as the New Kadam tradition. Jamgon Kongtrul's catalog to The Treasury of Precious Instructions classifies Kadam literature into five categories: treatise, instruction, esoteric practice, ancillary works, and associated works. The first two are the main topics covered in this volume: Lamrim or Stages of the Path and Lojong or Mind Training. These two Kadam teachings continue to exert a significant influence on Tibetan Buddhism and therefore represent the legacy of the Kadam tradition. The first centers around The Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment written by the eleventh century Indian master Atiśa who spent twelve years in Tibet and this volume also includes stories of Atiśa's life and travels. The second set of teachings consists of aphorisms known as the Seven Point Mind Training meant to be used as contemplative practices to develop compassion and transform the mind. These selections show not only the foundational texts of the Kadam tradition but also the widespread impact these teachings continued to have across traditions. Voice of Youth Advocates, 1995

Publisher: Reviving Reading Alison M.G. Follos, 2006-07-30. Drawing on her long experience as a school librarian, the author uses this middle school library programming book to help you promote free voluntary reading through innovative workshops, staff training, collection development, and collaborative curricular planning. Her goal is to revive the enthusiasm for reading that is often lost by the middle school years. Her recommendation: creative library literacy programming designed to pique flagging interest in reading for pleasure. Chapters focus on how to use the school's calendar and curriculum to get the time needed for the focused program, as well as ways to manipulate budgets, get grants, and other monies to build a strong literature-oriented program and collection. One chapter focuses entirely on how to get faculty to become readers of YA and children's literature in order to become models for their students. Other programs discussed are author visits, book fairs, whole school reading programs, journaling for readers, and many more. Also included is an annotated bibliography of great reads, Grades 4-12. School Library Journal, 2010
