Acker-Hocevar,Gary Ivory,A. William Place,Julia Ballenger, Ph.D.,2012-08-01 In the book we provide snapshots describing this critically important time in our nation when federal educational policy implementation has been at a level previously unheard of in the United States We present a chapter on the design and method of Voices 3 eight chapters on analyses of the focus group discussions and two invited chapters that provide a review and critique of our work The chapters will be excellent resources for professors of educational leadership as we respond to the changing environment and improve preparation programs for superintendents and principals We also see the book as a good resource for practitioners who desire to take the pulse of their colleagues in the field to see common concerns across various issues Finally it will be useful to policy makers as they consider the impact of their decisions on the implementation phases in districts and schools With this book you are receiving access to the 27 focus group transcripts on which the chapters are based Instructors of qualitative research may find these data useful in their classes e g for students to practice different types of data analysis and coding      Medical Times ,1904      Striving for Excellence ,1991      Current Index to Journals in Education ,1991

Ed School Geraldine Jonçich Clifford,James W. Guthrie,1990-07-02 Although schools of law medicine and business are now highly respected schools of education and the professionals they produce continue to be held in low regard In Ed School Geraldine Jon ich Clifford and James W Guthrie attribute this phenomenon to issues of academic politics and gender bias as they trace the origins and development of the school of education in the United States Drawing on case studies of leading schools of education the authors offer a bold controversial agenda for reform ed schools must reorient themselves toward teachers and away from the quest for prestige in academe they must also adhere to national professional standards abandon the undergraduate education major and reject the Ph D in education in favor of the Ed D      Resources in Education ,1990
