David Schneiderman

Uofs 2015 Prospectus:

University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re-think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities. While having a specific focus on the South African context, it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education. The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset-based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society. A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement, service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university. Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960-1975 Harley

Rothstein, 2024-08-09 The tumultuous 1960s was an era of the counterculture, political activism and resistance to authority. Conventions and values were challenged and new approaches to education captured the imaginations of parents, teachers and students. Reacting against the one-size-fits-all nature of the traditional public school system, groups of parents and teachers in Canada and the United States established alternative schools or free schools based on the Progressive child-centred philosophy of John Dewey and the Romantic ideas of Summerhill founder A.S. Neill. In Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960-1975, Harley Rothstein tells the story of ten such schools that arose in the province of British Columbia. Drawing on 350 self-conducted interviews, newspaper articles, personal journals and school records, Dr Rothstein invites readers to experience the early days of alternative schools. He describes the educational philosophy, curriculum and governance of these institutions and introduces readers to the people who were at the heart of alternative communities. Tracing the evolution, successes and challenges of each school, he presents the day-to-day experience and brings to life the ethos of the 1960s era. Historians, educators and all curious readers will become immersed in this engaging account of a group of educational pioneers on Canada's west coast and how they inspired the liberalization of the public school system that would come in the 1970s. A Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg Rodney Moffett, 2023-04-14 This

Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg is a continuation by the AfriMontane Research Unit of the University of the Free State (ARU) to document published and other similar works on the mountains of the summer rainfall area of South Africa. It follows A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands which was published in 2020 (Moffett 2020) and which covered the area between the North Eastern Cape and the North Eastern Free State. The current work extends this northward by including articles and publications dating back to 1875 (E. Cohen) on the Lydenburg goldfields reaching as far as the Wolkberg and Woodbush near Tzaneen in Limpopo Province. Figure 1 shows the boundary of the area covered and although referred to as the Far Northern Drakensberg in this work it is identical to that described as the LMEE Limpopo Mpumalanga Eswatini Escarpment by Clarke et al 2022 Although slightly separate from the lower escarpment the mountainous Barberton and adjacent Eswatini area as well as the Leolo Mountains in eastern Sekhukhuneland are also included Details on how the boundary in figure 1 was determined are given in Clark et al 2022 Bibliographies on two further ranges in the summer rainfall area viz the Magaliesberg in Gauteng province and the Soutpansberg in Limpopo province are to be the subject of future compilations
