Remke Kruk, 2013-11-19 Colloquial Arabic storytelling is most commonly associated with The Thousand and One Nights But few people are aware of a much larger corpus of narrative texts known as popular epic These heroic romantic tales originating in the Middle Ages form vast cycles of adventure stories whose most remarkable feature is their portrayal of powerful and memorable women Wildly appreciated by medieval audiences and spread by professional storytellers throughout the cities of the Muslim world these fictions were printed and reprinted over the centuries and comprise a vital part of Arab culture Yet virtually none are available in translation and so remain almost unknown to a non Arab public Remke Kruk at last makes these neglected romances available to a Western audience She recounts the story of Princess Dhat al Himma brave and undefeated leader of the Muslim army in its wars against the Byzantines of Ghamra brought up as a boy to become a fearless leader of men and of cool headed Qannasa raiding from her mountain fortress to capture and seduce her life she left behind The Pact and Other Stories Umelo Ojinmah,2022-02-16 In a time and culture where women left their wares in the marketplace knowing that those things would be intact when they returned the next day where bonds of friendship were like blood ties where when men shake hands over a deal it was like iron clad agreements breaking one's word or promise was odious and people would inconvenience themselves to keep promises made Socializations in Igbo societies indoctrinate members to subconsciously defer to cultural norms One of the reasons I believe is the action and reward belief systems of traditional and Christian religions While traditional religion instantly rewards actions good or bad Christian religion on the other hand prolongs the rewards to the point that people often disregard their consequences The cultural beliefs that underpin many of these stories are profound The dilemma of straddling between traditional and Christian beliefs can be enervating This book explores the faithfulness of friendship in The Pact Reloaded and how fate and people's destiny were often determined by the gods in The Dilemma of a Firstborn Priest and The Flute Only the gods can ring a man's eyes to see what other people can't see Oftentimes people's yesterdays catch up with their today and the actions of their distant past haunt their present as explored in The Twins The Iron Horse Edwin Conger Hill,1924 During the Civil War President Lincoln signs a bill Pacific Railroad Act of 1 July 1862 that authorizes the construction of a transcontinental railroad When the war ends Davy Brandon joins the Union Pacific as a surveyor and meets Miriam his childhood sweetheart whose father is in charge of construction Davy and Peter Jesson a civil engineer fight over Miriam and subsequently Miriam refuses Davy's offer of marriage When a band of Indians led by the renegade Deroux attack a construction train Davy recognizes Deroux as his father's murderer and kills him in a hand to hand fight Davy then joins the Central Pacific which is racing the Union Pacific to the center of the continent The joining of the two railroads by the golden spike is accompanied by the union of Davy and Miriam At the Heart of the Matter Dr. Eboni Ivory Green,2011-05-11 Caregivers have unique needs as they provide support and care for their loved ones At the Heart of the Matter ultimately enables caregivers to look at ways to better care for themselves and enhance their wellness while providing care for a loved one At the Heart of the Matter affords the caregiver an opportunity to personalize his or her caregiving journey based on their individual needs Special features included Famous quotes offering inspiration and hope to ease the turbulence often experienced during the complex matter of providing care for a sick or disabled loved one Points to ponder caregivers are guided through the spiritual journey as they are prompted to address questions at the end of each chapter Assessments to take a closer look at spiritual strengths find out what best interests individual caregivers and what strategies individuals feel most comfortable with when it comes to assisting a loved one or client Poems and interesting stories each chapter begins with a short story or poem which sets the tone for the spiritual journey and offers food for thought Concise chapters many caregivers do not have much free time The chapters in this book are concise so even caregivers with limited time have the opportunity to focus on how to continue to support a loved one while practicing the art of self care Let Loose the Lions
