Universities Guide 2009:

EBOOK: Managing Successful Universities Michael Shattock, 2010-09-16 There is no truer text to the topic than Managing Successful Universities. The second edition is a full revision in which globalisation, managing financial disjuncture and the enhancement of research performance all loom larger than before. Like its predecessor, this book will be used throughout the English speaking world and beyond. Professor Simon Marginson, Centre for the Study of Higher Education, University of Melbourne. This is the manual par excellence for modern university leadership and management. In my role as a business school dean, it is by far the most useful single book I have ever read and continue to read. Professor Mark Taylor, Dean Warwick Business School, University of Warwick. When I began my career in university management, there was just one book on managing UK universities. Now there must be twenty or thirty, but none is as comprehensive, authoritative, readable and important as Shattock's Managing Successful Universities. Read this valuable book and learn much from it. David Palfreyman, Director of OXCHEPS and Bursar, New College, University of Oxford. This bestselling book defines good management in a university context and how it can contribute to university success. Extensively updated to reflect political, financial and social developments since the first edition, it includes a new chapter on the management of teaching and research and gives in depth coverage to managing retrenchment and the importance of human resource management. Drawing on the literature of management in the private sector as well as from higher education and on the experience of the author, it emphasizes the holistic characteristics of university management. The need to be outward looking and entrepreneurial in management style and the ways successful universities utilize the market to reinforce academic excellence. Ebony, 2008-09. EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine. Leadership and Management of Quality in Higher Education Chenicheri Sid Nair, Len Webster, Patricie Mertova, 2010-08-12. This book provides a range of case studies concerning the leadership and management of quality development in higher education. It captures the experiences of senior administrators and managers to the complexity of problems that quality development involves. The authors draw attention to the human centred approach to quality as they argue that in any activity there is a need to take account of human values and attitudes. Experiences from experts in the field. Guide to resources that are utilized in the higher education industry. Auditors' perceptions. International Handbook of Universities 2009 International Association of Universities, 2008-09-15. This book is the most comprehensive guide to university level education worldwide, providing detailed information on higher education institutions that offer at least a graduate degree or a four year professional diploma. This edition includes single user access to World Higher Education Database Online. It includes over 12,000 institutions in 183 countries listed alphabetically, including a breakdown by private and public institutions where available. Also new to this edition is the inclusion of information on Educational Systems for each country. Information for this book is selected according to official sources in each country and collated by the International Association of Universities UNESCO Information Centre on Higher Education This edition includes For institutions Contact details for every institution name address telephone fax e mail website Historical background special facilities and publications Degrees and diplomas offered at each level of study Key personnel including principal academic and administrative officers Description of faculties schools and departments Valuable information on academic year admission requirements and tuition fees Academic staff and student numbers For education systems Quick description of the higher education system of each country Stages of studies as well as information on distance education Admission criteria including information for foreign students Quality assurance and recognition systems Contact details for national bodies Internationalisation of African Higher Education Chika Sehoole, Jane Knight, 2013-10-30 The role of higher education especially the international dimension is given little importance in the discourse on achieving the Millennium Development Goals MDGs in Africa This book aims to change that The potential of higher education s contribution to Africa s development remains unrealized and often misunderstood In today s globalised world which prioritises economic growth through liberalised trade and competitive market strategies much emphasis has been placed on higher education s ability to produce graduates to serve the labour market and produce new knowledge for the knowledge economy While these are important contributions the book argues that international higher education and new knowledge must go beyond economic purposes and serve the human and social development needs of the continent It is against this background that the African Network for the Internationalisation of Education ANIE undertook research on the international dimension of higher education in Africa and its role in the achievement of the MDGs Through empirical research seven case studies address how international and regional higher education programmes and policies in African universities can address MDG priorities of promoting gender equality and women s empowerment combating HIV AIDS and establishing global partnerships for development through academic mobility joint research initiatives curriculum innovation and policy development Passing Oxbridge Admissions Tests Rosalie Hutton, Glenn Hutton, 2008-08-22 Students applying to Oxbridge are increasingly required to sit Oxbridge specific admissions tests These are usually aptitude tests consisting of multiple choice questions focused on critical thinking and problem solving skills The most widely used is the Thinking Skills Assessment TSA This book introduces candidates to critical thinking and problem solving skills and their use in answering test questions It includes a practice test similar to the TSA with answers and explanations and also guidance on the TSA Writing Task undertaken by applicants to Oxford The book also refers to the tests for English History Physics Mathematics and Computer Sciences Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education E. Hazelkorn, 2011-03-08 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This book is the first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective making an important contribution to our understanding of the rankings phenomenon This book has also been published in Japanese The Media and Communications in Australia

Stuart Cunningham,2010-10 Traditional media are under assault from digital technologies Online advertising is eroding the financial basis of newspapers and television demarcations between different forms of media are fading and audiences are fragmenting We can podcast our favourite radio show data accompanies television programs and we catch up with newspaper stories on our laptops Yet mainstream media remain enormously powerful The Media and Communications in Australia offers a systematic introduction to this dynamic field Fully updated and revised to take account of recent developments this third edition outlines the key media industries and explains how communications technologies are impacting on them It provides a thorough overview of the main approaches taken in studying the media and includes new chapters on social media gaming telecommunications sport and cultural diversity With contributions from some of Australia's best researchers and teachers in the field The Media and Communications in Australia is the most comprehensive and reliable introduction to media and communications available It is an ideal student text and a reference for teachers of media and anyone interested in this influential industry

Gender Issues in Learning and Working with Information Technology: Social Constructs and Cultural Contexts Booth, Shirley, Goodman, Sara, Kirkup, Gill, 2010-05-31 This book deals with four features of the burgeoning knowledge society gender equity learning and information technology with the focus on gender not in the taken for granted biological sense of sex but in the socially constituted sense of it Provided by publisher

Universities in Change Andreas Altmann, Bernd Ebersberger, 2012-09-13 Universities find themselves in dynamic change They are confronted with growing expectations from their stakeholders increasing international competition and new technological challenges Featuring insights and in depth case studies from leading researchers and university decision makers from around the world this book argues that institutions of higher education in order to be successful have to actively reflect on circumstances visions and strategies to master the future Drawing from their experiences across a diverse array of institutions in Europe Asia and the Americas the authors explore the pressures on today's universities and the opportunities for excelling in the contest for resources They discuss operational issues such as strategic management IT governance leadership development and entrepreneurial culture and broader concerns such as the roles and responsibilities of universities in promoting technology transfer and economic and social development The result is a resource that not only reveals and analyzes universities from an organizational perspective but presents best practice models and concrete inspiration for management and policymaking

The SAGE Handbook of International Higher Education Darla K. Deardorff, Hans de Wit, John D. Heyl, 2012-08-20 International Education as we have known it has evolved from a fragmented approach on study abroad and international students into a strategic and comprehensive internationalization concept that affects all aspects of higher education The SAGE Handbook of International Higher Education serves as a guide to internationalization of higher education and offers new strategies for its further development and expansion in the years to come With a decidedly global approach this groundbreaking volume brings together leading experts from around the world to illustrate the increasing importance of internationalization It also encompasses the diversity and breadth of internationalization of higher education in all its thematic facets and regional impacts The handbook comprises five sections covering key areas internationalization of higher education in a conceptual and historic context different thematic approaches to internationalization internationalization of the curriculum teaching and learning process and intercultural competencies the abroad dimension of internationalization and the mobility of students scholars institutions and projects and a concluding section on regional trends in international education and direction for the future of internationalization in the 21st century

Quality Assurance and University Rankings in the Asia Pacific: Country and Institutional Contexts (Penerbit USM) Koo Yew Lie, Sarjit Kaur, Morshidi Sirat, 2011 University league tables at national regional international levels are increasingly complex influential and controversial In spite of criticisms on robustness of methodology and bias of indicators higher education institutions continue to have an appetite for them and use or misuse them in their planning policymaking and promotion activities This publication will contribute to the much needed analysis of the implications benefits and unintended consequences related to rankings and the broader issues of quality assurance in the Asia Pacific region

One World, Many Knowledges Tar Halvorsen, Peter Vale, 2016-05-12 Various forms of academic co operation criss cross the modern university system in a bewildering number of ways from the open exchange of ideas and knowledge to the sharing of research results and frank discussions about research challenges Embedded in these scholarly networks is the question of whether a global template for the management of both higher education and national research organisations is necessary and if so must institutions slavishly follow the high flown language of the global knowledge society or risk falling behind in the ubiquitous university ranking system Or are there alternatives that can achieve a better more ethically inclined world Basing their observations on their own experiences an interesting mix of seasoned scholars and new voices from southern Africa and the Nordic region offer critical perspectives on issues of inter and cross regional academic co operation Several of the chapters also touch on the evolution of the higher education sector in the two regions An absorbing and intelligent study this book will be invaluable for anyone interested in the strategies scholars are using to adapt to the interconnectedness of the modern world It offers fresh insights into how academics are attempting to protect the spaces in which they can freely and openly debate the challenges they face while aiming to transform higher education and foster scholarly collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a partnership of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe SANORDs primary aim is to promote multilateral research co operation on matters of importance to the development of both regions Our activities are based on the values of democracy equity and mutually beneficial academic engagement
