Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Social Media and Everyday Life in South Africa Tanja E Bosch, 2020-11-22 This book explores how social media is used in South Africa through a range of case studies exploring various social networking sites and applications This volume explores how over the past decade social media platforms have deeply penetrated the fabric of everyday life The author considers South Africans use of wearable tech and use of online health and sports tracking systems via mobile phones within the broader context of the digital data economy The author also focuses on the dating app Tinder to show how people negotiate and redefine intimacy through the practice of online dating via strategic performances in pursuit of love sex and intimacy The book concludes with the use of Facebook and Twitter for social activism e g Fees Must Fall as well as networked community building as in the case of the imstaying movement This book will be of interest to social media academics and students as well as anyone interested in social media politics and cultural life in South Africa Maheshvari: The Pandemic and Social Science Appro , 2023-06-02 Undoubtedly Covid 19 caused major disruptions in several realms of human life Not least affected is higher education Museum Cooperation between Africa and Europe Thomas Laely, Marc Meyer, Raphael Schwere, 2018-07-20 At a time of major transformations in the conditions and self conceptions of cultural history and ethnological museums worldwide it has become increasingly important for these museums to engage in cooperative projects This book brings together insights and analyses of a wide variety of approaches to museum cooperation from different expert perspectives Featuring a variety of African and European points of view and providing detailed empirical evidence it establishes a new field of museological study and provides some suggestions for future museum practice A History of the Present Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2019-09-12 Through the long 20th century Indian South Africans lived under the whip of settler colonialism and white minority rule which saw the passing of a slew of legislation that circumscribed their freedom of movement threatened repatriation and denied them citizenship all the while herding them into racially segregated townships This volume chronicles the broad outlines of this history Taking the story into the present it provides an analysis of how Indian South Africans have responded to changes wrought by the remarkable collapse of apartheid and the holding of the first democratic elections in 1994 Drawing upon archival records in depth interviews and ethnography this study examines the ways in which Indian South Africans define themselves and the world around them and how they are defined by others It tells of the incredible journey of Indian South Africans many of whom are fourth and fifth generation towards being recognized as citizens in the land of their birth and how while often attracted by and seeking to explore their roots in India they continue to dig deeper roots in African soil Transgression and Transformation L. Juliana Claassens, Christl M. Maier, Funlola O. Olojede, 2021-07-15 This volume on feminist postcolonial and queer biblical interpretation gathers perspectives from a global body of researchers in offering innovative interpretations of key texts from the Hebrew Bible both established and emerging biblical scholars consider the question of how commonplace interpretative practices may be considered to be transgressive in nature Utilizing innovative strategies they read against the grain of the text and in support of the marginalized the subordinated or subaltern others both in the text and in our world today Important questions regarding power and privilege are constantly raised whose voices are being heard and whose interests are being served Knowing all too well the harm that stereotypical constructions of the Other can do in terms of feeding racism sexism homophobia and imperialism in their respective interpretative communities the essays in this volume interrogate constructions of ethnicity gender sexual orientation and class both in the text as well as in their respective contexts By means of these thought provoking interpretations the contributors show their commitment not merely the sake of scholarship but to a scholarly ethos which in some shape or form contributes to the cultivation of more just equitable societies

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Sexuality Education ,2024-12-23 This Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive map of the field of sexuality education It offers an entry point for those interested in this topic providing a robust summary of issues and directing them to its best scholarship Comprehensive in scope it covers diverse global locations to highlight the significance of context when defining sexuality education The rapid development and increase in accessibility of digital technologies which has broadened sexuality education to include digital and media platforms is also reflected

Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Fields, Ziska,2018-06-22 The prominence and growing dependency on information communication technologies in nearly every aspect of life has opened the door to threats in cyberspace Criminal elements inside and outside organizations gain access to information that can cause financial and reputational damage Criminals also target individuals daily with personal devices like smartphones and home security systems who are often unaware of the dangers and the privacy threats around them The Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution is a critical scholarly resource that creates awareness of the severity of cyber information threats on personal business governmental and societal levels The book explores topics such as social engineering in information security threats to cloud computing and cybersecurity resilience during the time of the Fourth Industrial Revolution As a source that builds on available literature and expertise in the field of information technology and security this publication proves useful for academicians educationalists policy makers government officials students researchers and business leaders and managers

Decolonising Journalism Education in South Africa Ylva Rodny-Gumede,Colin Chasi,Zubeida Jaffer,Mvuso Ponono,2023-05-19 This book is the culmination of several years of collaborative work It is a unique contribution to the field of journalism because of the depth and variety of contributions it makes to the field The scholars who contribute to this volume respond to the great need to rethink journalism from various perspectives including journalism training research the contents of the news media language media ethics the safety of journalists and gender inequities in the news media In doing this they recognise how the societies that journalism address should themselves change International Case Studies in Service Learning Enakshi Sengupta,Patrick Blessinger,2022-11-16 Shedding light on how successfully service learning has been adopted to the existing curriculum and the emergence of a new breed of students who are aligned with the needs of the community and undertake collaborative work to solve real world issues Volume 47 is invaluable to both researchers teachers and scholars Outsourcing Fausto Pedro García Márquez,Benjamin Lev,Huchang Liao,2025-10-02 Outsourcing has become a crucial tool for industries societies and governments alike making it an important area of study within Management Science MS and Operations Research OR This book focuses on the intersections of outsourcing with MS and OR beginning each chapter with fundamental concepts and exploring the benefits advantages disadvantages real world examples applications theories and potential future developments The content spans a broad range of topics drawing examples from both the private and public sector The book also delves into future trends and the evolving role of outsourcing Outsourcing is commonly employed to achieve faster results reduce costs distribute risk enhance efficiency and maintain flexibility This book connects these aspects with MS and OR models providing a comprehensive interface between engineering technology and the organizational economic administrative and planning strategies needed for managing outsourcing effectively This book is intended for professionals in the fields of energy engineering information science mathematics economics etc and for researchers who wish to develop new skills in outsourcing or who employ outsourcing as part of their work As the second volume in a two part series it focuses on real world cases and studies You Can't Go to War without Song Omotayo Jolaosho,2022-07-26 You Can t Go to War without Song explores the role of public performance in political activism in contemporary South Africa Weaving together detailed ethnographic fieldwork and an astute theoretical framework Omotayo Jolaosho examines the cohesive power of protest songs and dances within the Anti Privatisation Forum APF one of many social movements that emerged in the wake of South Africa s democratic transition after 1994 Jolaosho demonstrates the ways APF members adapted anti apartheid songs and dance to create new expressive forms that informed and commented on their struggles for access to water electricity housing education and health facilities the costs of which had been made prohibitive by privatization You Can t Go to War without Song offers profiles of individual activists to amplify its central point social movements like the APF are best understood as the coming together of individuals and it is the songs and dances of the movement that bind these individual together and create opportunity for community organization Chapters on women and youth complicate such understandings of community however showing how activist live and experiences are shaped by gender and generation Queer Word- and World-Making in South Africa Taylor Riley,2021-05-03 Focusing on everyday experiences of sexuality in the South African province of KwaZulu Natal this book considers personal narratives and other queer artefacts to shed light on linguistic and performative strategies of resistance referred to as queer word and world making Questions of non normative expressions of gender and sexuality in South Africa refer to the politics of words and to their contested meanings and valuations reflected in the way that they roll off tongues. If sexualities are not merely acts, feelings or identities but embodiments of desires which invoke and influence social contexts, assumptions about sexuality as a realm of situated knowledge cannot be trusted at face value. Taylor Riley considers the meanings coded in words used to depict same sexualities and the productive silences which surround them and how those meanings are embraced, altered and resisted through labors of everyday existence. The volume sheds new light on and personalizes the highly contested meanings which surround queer life and LGBTI rights in South Africa. It will be of interest to scholars and upper level students of anthropology, queer studies and African studies.

John Solilo John Solilo, 2016. For 40 years between 1900 and 1939 John Solilo (1864-1940) was a prolific contributor to Xhosa language newspapers under his own name and under the pseudonyms Mde ngelimi, Master Wordsmith and Kwanguye. It's Still Him: He submitted letters and articles on a variety of issues, local news reports from Cradock and Uitenhage and a considerable body of poetry. Solilo's major literary contribution was his collection of poems entitled Izala, published in 1925, the earliest volume of poetry by a single author in the history of Xhosa literature. His poetry was inspired by umoya wembongi, the spirit of the imbongi, the praise poet whose stirring declamations roused his audiences to action or contemplation. Solilo's literary reputation today, however, is at variance with his prominence as a major author in the first four decades of the twentieth century; he is hardly mentioned, if at all, by literary historians. That neglect is perhaps not surprising: Izala has long been out of print and copies can no longer be located. The present volume is therefore an exercise in reclamation and restitution. In restoring to the public domain the 65 poems that made up Izala and adding an additional 28 that were published in newspapers both before and after the appearance of Izala, the editors hope to revive John Solilo's reputation as a poet and to establish his status as a pre-eminent Xhosa author. Jeff Opland commenced his academic career as a medievalist but for the past 40 years he has assembled a collection of oral and printed poetry and has devoted himself to defining and restoring the heritage of literature in the Xhosa language. Amongst other works, with Peter Mtuze he edited two anthologies of Xhosa literature: Isigodlo sikaPhalo (1983) and Izwi labantu (1994). Opland is currently Visiting Professor in the School of Languages, African Language Studies at Rhodes University. Peter T. Mtuze is the most prolific living isiXhosa writer. He has authored and co-authored no fewer than 30 books. His main contribution is in creative writing; he has produced novels, short stories, essays, drama, poetry, autobiography and language books. Mtuze's first book, UDingezweni, which appeared as far back as 1966, is regarded as a classic novel. One of his singular achievements was his translation of former President Nelson Mandela's autobiography Long Walk to Freedom into isiXhosa. He worked on the University of Fort Hare Xhosa Dictionary Project at the University of South Africa and at Rhodes University where he retired as Professor Emeritus. Series Publications of the Opland Collection of Xhosa Literature, Vol. 3, Subject: Poetry, African Studies.

African Language Media Phillip Mpofu, Israel A. Fadipe, Thulani Tshabangu, 2023-03-13. This book outlines how African language media is affected by politics technology culture and the economy and how this media is creatively produced and appropriated by audiences across cultures and contexts African language media can be considered as a tool for communication socialization and community that defines the various identities of indigenous people in Africa This book shows how vernacular media outlets including radio and television as well as native formats such as festivals rituals and dance can be used to influence all facets of local peoples experience and understanding of community The book also explores the relationship between African language media sources and contemporary issues including the digitalization conundrum peace and conflict resolution identity formation hate speech and fake news Furthermore it shows how local media can be used for development communication purposes during health and environmental crises The book includes cases studies demonstrating the uses experiences and activities related to various forms of media available in African languages This book will be of interest to scholars in the field of communication and media studies health and environmental communication journalism African studies and anthropology
