Politics in Africa Luescher, Thierry M., Klemencic, Manja, 2016-05-12 The second volume of the African Higher Education Dynamics Series brings together the research of an international network of higher education scholars with interest in higher education and student politics in Africa Most authors are early career academics who teach and conduct research in universities across the continent and who came together for a research project and related workshops and a symposium on student representation in African higher education governance The book includes theoretical chapters on student organising student activism and representation chapters on historical and current developments in student politics in Anglophone and Francophone Africa and in depth case studies on student representation and activism in a cross section of universities and countries The book provides a unique resource for academics university leaders and student affairs professionals as well as student leaders and policy makers in Africa and elsewhere Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World Felicity Wood, 2018-04-17 Universities and the Occult Rituals of the Corporate World explores the metaphorical parallels between corporatised market oriented universities and aspects of the occult In the process the book shows that the forms of mystery mythmaking and ritual now common in restructured institutions of higher education stem from their new power structures and procedures and the economic and sociopolitical factors that have generated them Wood argues that universities have acquired occult aspects as the beliefs and practices underpinning present day market driven academic discourse and practice weave spells of corporate potency invoking the bewildering magic of the market and the arcane mysteries of capitalism thriving on equivocation and evasion Making particular reference to South African universities the book demonstrates the ways in which apparently rational features of contemporary Western and westernised societies have acquired occult aspects It also includes discussion of higher education institutions in other countries where neoliberal economic agendas are influential such as the UK the USA the Eurozone states and Australia Providing a unique and thought provoking look at the impact of the marketisation of Higher Education this book will be essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of higher education educational policy and neoliberalism It should also be of great interest to academics in the fields of anthropology folklore and cultural studies as well as business economics and management Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa Cuthbeth Tagwirei, 2025-09-26 Apartheid and Fragmented Protest in Contemporary Southern Africa examines protest movements through the lens of Apartheid Studies the first general theory of apartheid which explores how oppression harm injustice poverty loss and inequality persist The book argues that apartheid which breaks the world of the oppressed into fragments fomenting diverse experiences of oppression among its victims frames the nature and course of protests by making them subject to its fragmentation Protest is thus redefined as good neighbourly and demoted on account of its symbiotic

relationship to apartheid It is observed that the proliferation of protests does not preclude the persistence of apartheid Rather protest and apartheid are seen to be compatible By examining protest hashtags on X from South Africa and Zimbabwe the book explores and identifies the forms relations meanings trajectories and effects protests take evoke and embody as fragments subsisting in a fractured apartheid universe It demonstrates how and why life goes on amidst protest sheds light on the contradictions paradoxes and complexities that characterise protest movements and invites conversations around protest as a paradigm in the context of apartheid The book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of social movements protests sociology African Studies and communication and media studies

Building Higher Education Cooperation with the EU Elizabeth Balbachevsky,Yuzhuo Cai,Heather Eggins,Svetlana Shenderova,2020-12-15

International cooperation in higher education is not new but gained new urgency in recent years with the expansion of the knowledge economy the easy flow of communications and the emulation created by international rankings In the European Union s countries international competition and the process of political and economic unification required national higher education institutions to give priority to international cooperation while large countries such as Russia China Brazil and South Africa intensified their effort to modernise their institutions and link them to the international flow of science technology and talent leading similar trends in other countries in their regions These global trends are shaped by the national culture and institutions of each country and the existing national and international cooperation policies and instruments on all sides In Building Higher Education Cooperation with the EU Challenges and Opportunities from Four Continents the authors look at how these interactions occur from the perspectives of the European Union and the countries involved and make recommendations on policies that could make international cooperation more fluid and beneficial to all parties involved

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all. It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities. It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities. Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education. It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020. It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries. Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights. It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks. Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Mpya, Nwacoye Gladness, Sadiki, Marubini Christinah, 2024-02-16 In the vast expanse of education a pervasive issue remains in the marginalization and lack of visibility of individuals with disabilities. Despite a strong desire for inclusivity recent research suggests that fewer than 5% of children with disabilities in 51 countries across sub Saharan Africa and South Asia are enrolled in primary school. This exclusion is not solely in enrollment numbers even those who manage to attend face learning environments ill equipped to adapt to their needs leading to further isolation. Girls with disabilities in particular endure heightened vulnerability to abuse reflecting a systemic failure to provide an environment that fosters equality dignity and respect for all. The Handbook of Research on Inclusive and Accessible Education emerges as an inspiration for change providing a profound solution to the persistent issue of exclusion. The book encapsulates a collective effort to reimagine education. It advocates for a paradigm shift moving away from the confinement of special schools and towards inclusive mainstream settings. By addressing controversies sharing successes and outlining prospects the book serves as a comprehensive guide for special school governing bodies curriculum advisors university lecturers and all stakeholders committed to reshaping education.
