University Of Kwazulu Natal 2016 Prospectus:

University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university

Global Science's Cooperation Opportunities, Challenges, and Good Practices Moussaoui, Mohamed, 2023-07-24 Science diplomacy gives possibilities for international diplomacy and science policy to collaborate to more directly address social and global challenges such as successful diplomatic engagement international scientific coordination and policy coherence in response to the COVID 19 pandemic However most academic scientists lack policy process training networking opportunities with science policymakers and the capacity to use their expertise in the field to advance policy or diplomacy These barriers limit scientists research impact inhibit science policy relations reduce science recommendations and restrict university engagement in national and international contexts The origins of science diplomacy have yet to be closely examined and its current format does not give a clear understanding of how it concretely translates into science policy actions Global Science's Cooperation Opportunities Challenges and Good Practices provides a comprehensive overview of science diplomacy and its evolution in history and analyzes the ways in which politics science and diplomacy intertwine The book also provides a critical review of science diplomacy by exposing its limitations in addressing global challenges and by reflecting on the specific questions relating to the adaptation of the science diplomacy concept to the context of the Global South Covering key topics such as climate change foreign policy and energy consumption this premier reference source is ideal for policymakers government officials politicians industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Places of Privilege , 2018-07-19 Places of Privilege examines dynamics of privilege and power in the construction of place in a period of the rapid social transformation of places borders and boundaries Drawing on inter disciplinary perspectives the book examines place as a site for the making and re making of privilege while considering new meanings of community and examining spaces for cultural identity and resistance Chapters point to a range of conceptual resources that can be utilised to produce critical analyses of place making As the authors point out power and privilege shape place but these dynamics are in turn shaped by the specific

African Print Cultures Derek Peterson, Steph Newell, Emma Hunter, 2016-09-29 The essays collected in African Print Cultures claim African newspapers as subjects of historical and literary study Newspapers were not only vehicles for anticolonial nationalism They were also incubators of literary experimentation and networks by which new solidarities came into being By focusing on the creative work that African editors and contributors did this volume brings an infrastructure of African public culture into view The first of four thematic sections African Newspaper Networks considers the work that newspaper editors did to relate events within their locality to happenings in far off places This work of correlation and juxtaposition made it possible for distant people to see themselves as fellow travellers Experiments with Genre explores how newspapers nurtured the development of new literary genres such as poetry realist fiction photoplays and travel writing in African languages and in English Newspapers and Their Publics looks at the ways in which African newspapers fostered the creation of new kinds of communities and served as networks for public interaction political and otherwise The final section Afterlives is about the longue dur e of history that newspapers helped to structure and how throughout the twentieth century print allowed contributors to view their writing as material meant for posterity Spatial Histories of Radical Geography Trevor J. Barnes, Eric Sheppard, 2019-04-17 A wide ranging and knowledgeable guide to the history of radical geography in North America and beyond Includes contributions from an international group of scholars Focuses on the centrality of place spatial circulation and geographical scale in understanding the rise of radical geography and its spread A celebration of radical geography from its early beginnings in the 1950s through to the 1980s and after Draws on oral histories by leaders in the field and private and public archives Contains a wealth of never before published historical material Serves as both authoritative introduction and indispensable professional reference Organise or Die?

Raphaël Botiveau, 2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa's National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Raphaël Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union's structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union's success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa's top post apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history
