University Of Limpopo Application 2015:

Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C. Ijeoma, Ogochukwu I. Nzewi, 2018-12-31 The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment. The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives, the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology. It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government e.g. leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery. The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way. Through its multidisciplinary lens, the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent, not neglecting the current local, regional and global environment. Until recently, globalisation was considered an entrenched world order, but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history. This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union, highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order. These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole. Pointedly, it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge. On the policy front, there are perennial challenges of land reform, service delivery and poverty, while on the governance front, corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership. In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy, South Africa's income inequality remains one of the highest in the world. This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work.

Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions, democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change. As a result, student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape. Individually and through the student councils, students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship. Through student activism and citizenship, students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education's decision making processes. Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth. Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives, academia, public, private and civil society sectors. It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers

 Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post apartheid South Africa Specifically it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution if not the practice of a non racial state in 1994 The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994 Higher Education Pathways Paul Ashwin, M. Case, 2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Wireless Communication Prashant Ranjan, Ram Shringar Rao, Krishna Kumar, Pankaj Sharma, 2022-08-10 This

Bauer, 2021-09-13 Science and technology culture is now more than ever at the very heart of the social project and all countries to varying degrees participate in it raising scientific literacy improving the image of the sciences involving the public in debates and encouraging the young to pursue careers in the sciences Thus the very destiny of any society is now entwined with its ability to develop a genuine science and technology culture accessible for participation not only to the few who by virtue of their training or trade work in the science and technology fields but to all thereby creating occasions for society to debate and to foster a positive dialogue about the directions of change and future choices This book organized on the theme of knowing sharing caring new insights for a diverse world which was derived from the observation that globalization rests upon diversity diversity of contexts public research strategies and new innovating practices and aims to stimulate exchanges discussions and debates to initiate a reflection conducive to decentring and to be an opportunity for enrichment by providing the reader with means to achieve the potentialities of that diversity through a comparison of the visions that underpin the attitudes of social actors the challenges they perceive and the potential solutions they consider Thus this book aims first and foremost to raise questions in such a manner that readers so stimulated will feel compelled to contribute and will do so In this spirit however significant the results presented and shared are less important than the questions they seek to answer How are we to rethink the diffusion the propagation and the sharing of scientific thought and knowledge in an ever more complex and diverse world What to know What to share How do we do it when science is broken down across the whole spectrum of the world's diversity The book is recommended for those who are interested in science communication and science cultures in the new media era in contemporary social dynamics and in the evolution of the role of the state and of institutions It is also an excellent reference for researchers engaging in science communication public understanding of science cultural studies science and technology museum science society relationship and other fields of humanities and social sciences Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Proceedings of the Future Technologies Conference (FTC) 2018 Kohei Arai, Rahul Bhatia, Supriya Kapoor, 2018-10-19 The book presenting the proceedings of the 2018 Future Technologies Conference FTC 2018 is a remarkable collection of chapters covering a wide range of topics including but not limited to computing electronics artificial intelligence robotics security and communications and their real world applications The conference attracted a total of 503 submissions from pioneering researchers scientists industrial engineers and students from all over the world After a double blind peer review process 173 submissions including 6 poster papers have been selected to be included in these proceedings FTC 2018 successfully brought together technology geniuses in one venue to not only present breakthrough research in future technologies but to also promote practicality and applications and an intra and inter field exchange of ideas In the future computing technologies will play a very important role in the convergence of computing communication and all other computational sciences and applications And as a result it will also influence the future of science engineering industry business law politics culture and medicine Providing state of the art intelligent methods and techniques for solving real world problems as well as a vision of the future research this book is a valuable resource for all those interested in this area Beyond Tenderpreneurship MISTRA MISTRA, 2020-04-16 Black Economic Empowerment BEE policies have been a central pillar of attempts to overcome the economic legacy of apartheid Yet more than two decades into democracy economic exclusion in South Africa still largely reflects the fault lines of the apartheid era Current discourse often conflates BEE with the so called tenderpreneurship referred to in the title namely the reliance of some emergent black capitalists on state patronage Authors go beyond this notion to understand BEE's role from a unique perspective They trace the history of black entrepreneurship and how deliberate policies under colonialism and its apartheid variant sought to suppress this impulse In the context of modern South Africa authors interrogate the complex dynamics of class formation economic empowerment and redress against the backdrop of broader macroeconomic policies They examine questions relating to whether BEE policies are informed by strategies to change the structure of the economy These issues are explored against the backdrop of the experiences of other developing countries and their journeys of industrialisation. The relevant black empowerment experiences of countries such as the United States are also discussed. The authors identify policy and programmatic interventions to forge the non-racial future that the constitution enjoins South Africans to build.

Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01

Parcel of Death recounts the little-told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro, the first South African freedom fighter, the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country's borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb. On 29 April 1972, Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history. Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony, Tiro's anti-apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled, igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country. By the time he went into exile in Botswana, Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement (SASM), permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation (SASO) and a leading Black Consciousness proponent, hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings. Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro's life, including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana, Zeerust, the time he spent working on a manganese mine, his role as a teacher, and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook. It is a compelling portrait of Tiro's story and its lasting significance in South Africa's history.
