Library,1971 Parks and People in Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela,2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university Peri-Urban Developments and Processes in Africa with Special Reference to Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa,Elias Mazhindu,Elmond Bandauko,2016-05-23 This book focuses on peri urban development processes in Africa with special emphasis on Zimbabwe The debates included highlight a number of issues in the peri urban context such as access to water appropriate technologies and land management political economy in the peri urban space peri urban agriculture and place marketing in peri urban development among others The debates raised by the authors in this book revolve around locating the peri urban space within the context of sustainability in which key issues are addressed The book essentially examines peri urban development processes from various angles in an effort to understand how peri urban areas develop function and how their residents survive Peri urban dwellers currently face numerous challenges including land tenure insecurity poor infrastructure and services land use conflicts stringent planning law and land use planning regulations This work seeks to address the knowledge gap on peri urban development processes in Africa and is also intended to inform urban policy practice in the African Cities and beyond Offering policy makers valuable insights on the peri urban space it provides guidance for decision making in the contexts of service delivery land management housing new town development and place marketing among others The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, 1984

Transfrontier Conservation in Africa Maano Ramutsindela, 2007 Transfrontier conservation is a global concept which encompasses the protection of biodiversity spanning the borders of two or more countries in ways that support local economic development international relations and peace Nowhere is this more relevant but highly debatable than in Africa which is home to a third of the world's terrestrial biodiversity while at the same time hosting its poorest nations This is one of the first books to account for the emergence of transfrontier conservation in Africa against international experiences in bioregional planning The roles of the state and local populations are analyzed as well as the ecological socio economic and political implications The Library of Congress Author Catalog Library of Congress, 1953 Mud, Sands and Seas

Denis Montgomery, 2008-11 This a collection of travel stories over nearly sixty years from 1949 to 2007 During that time the author saw many changes in Africa and recorded them with his observations often with the goal of extending his knowledge of history and pre history of the region These stories fill gaps between previous books devoted to particular expeditions

Worlds of Human Rights Bill Derman, Anne Hellum, Kristin Sandvik, 2013-04-15 This book engages with contemporary African human rights struggles including land property gender equality and legal identity Through ethnographic field studies it situates claims making by groups and individuals that have been subject to injustices and abuses often due to different forms of displacement in specific geographical historical and political contexts Exploring local communities complexities and divided interests it addresses the ambiguities and tensions surrounding the processes whereby human rights have been incorporated into legislation social and economic programs legal advocacy land reform and humanitarian assistance It shows how existing relations of inequality domination and control are affected by the opportunities offered by emerging law and governance structures as a plurality of non state actors enter what previously was considered the sole regulatory domain of the nation state Strength Beyond Structure Mirjam De Bruijn, Rijk Van Dijk, Jan Bart Gewald, 2007 Drawing on a wide range of historical and anthropological case studies from various parts of Africa this anthology provides an understanding of the importance of agency in processes of social transformation especially in the context of crisis and structural constraint

Catalogue systématique de la section Afrique: Isles de l'océan Indien en général Musée de l'homme (Muséum national d'histoire naturelle). Bibliothèque,1970 The Good Holiday João Afonso Baptista,2017-05-01 Drawing on ethnographic research in the village of Canhane which is host to the first community tourism project in Mozambique The Good Holiday explores the confluence of two powerful industries tourism and development and explains when how and why tourism becomes development and development tourism The volume further explores the social and material consequences of this merging presenting the confluence of tourism and development as a major vehicle for the exercise of ethics and non state governance in contemporary life Handbook of Migration and Health Felicity Thomas,2016-12-30 Migration is now firmly embedded as a leading global policy issue of the twenty first century Whilst not a new phenomenon it has altered significantly in recent decades with changing demographics geopolitics conflict climate change and patterns of global development shaping new types of migration Against this evolving backdrop this Handbook offers an authoritative overview of key debates underpinning migration and health in a contemporary global context Integrated Water Resources Management, Institutions and Livelihoods under Stress Collin C. Mabiza,2018-03-09 The majority of people in Limpopo river basin depend on rainfed agriculture Unfortunately the Limpopo is water scarce and parts of the basin such as Zimbabwe s Mzingwane catchment are under stress in terms of agro ecological and socio politicoeconomic conditions Integrated Water Resources Management IWRM has been adopted in the river basin i Trust, Courts and Social Rights David Vitale,2024-02-07 Trust Courts and Social Rights proposes an innovative legal framework for judicially enforcing social rights that is rooted in public trust in government or political trust Interdisciplinary in nature the book draws on theoretical and empirical scholarship on the concept of trust across disciplines including philosophy sociology psychology and political theory It integrates that scholarship with the relevant public law literature on social rights fiduciary political theory and judicial review In doing so the book uses trust as an analytical lens for social rights law importing ideas from the scholarship on trust into the social rights literature and develops a normative argument that contributes to the controversial debate on how courts should enforce social rights Also global in focus the book uses cases from courts in Africa Europe Latin America and North America to illustrate how the trust based framework operates in practice Towards the sustainable well-being of communities Attie van Niekerk,2024-12-03 This book offers a transdisciplinary exploration of the southern African context examining the dynamic interactions between traditional African beliefs Christianity and the modern global empire all in close relation to the African landscape and ecology Drawing on original research the book delves into the ways these powerful forces have shaped contemporary households and communities emphasizing the importance of community agency and sustainable indigenous solutions for everyday challenges It highlights the intersection of cultural religious and ecological systems offering a holistic approach to building resilient and sustainable communities While centered on Southern Africa the book s insights are valuable to global researchers and those invested in creating a dignified livable and sustainable future for Africa Inclusive Businesses in Agriculture Wytse Chamberlain,Ward Anseeuw,2017-03-30 Inclusive business is hailed as a win win scenario for the development of poor communities yet there is little insight into how these inclusive businesses work and more importantly for whom This book aims for a thorough understanding of the range of inclusive businesses in agriculture by examining the structures they implement the actors involved and whether they are effectively inclusive of smallholders It presents a range of case studies and is therefore empirically based and practically oriented By offering a critical assessment of inclusive businesses overall it allows for a better perception of what works where and under which conditions It provides useful insights that will benefit smallholders agri businesses support groups policy makers and investors who are willing to promote more inclusive businesses that foster a better integration of smallholders into commercial value chains and a more equitable and sustainable agricultural sector
