University Of Portchefsroom 2016 Application Form:

Operator Theory, Function Spaces, and Applications Tanja Eisner,Birgit Jacob,André Ran,Hans Zwart,2016-09-24

This volume collects a selected number of papers presented at the International Workshop on Operator Theory and its Applications IWOTA held in July 2014 at Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam Main developments in the broad area of operator theory are covered with special emphasis on applications to science and engineering The volume also presents papers dedicated to the eightieth birthday of Damir Arov and to the sixty fifth birthday of Leiba Rodman both leading figures in the area of operator theory and its applications in particular to systems theory Radio, Public Life and Citizen Deliberation in South Africa Sarah Chiumbu,Gilbert Motsaathebe,2021-05-24

This book critically analyses the important role of radio in public life in post apartheid South Africa As the most widespread and popular form of communication in the country radio occupies an essential space in the deliberation and the construction of public opinion in South Africa From just a few state controlled stations during the apartheid era there are now more than 100 radio stations reaching vast swathes of the population and providing an important space for citizens to air their views and take part in significant socio economic and political issues of the country The various contributors to this book demonstrate that whilst print and television media often serve elite interests and audiences the low cost and flexibility of radio has helped it to create a common space for national dialogue and deliberation The book also investigates the ways in which digital technologies have enhanced the consumption of radio and produced a sense of imagined community for citizens including those in marginalised communities and rural areas This book will be of interest to researchers with an interest in media politics and culture in South Africa specifically as well as those with an interest in broadcast media more generally The Modernist World Allana Lindgren,Stephen

Ross,2015-06-05 The Modernist World is an accessible yet cutting edge volume which redraws the boundaries and connections among interdisciplinary and transnational modernisms The 61 new essays address literature visual arts theatre dance architecture music film and intellectual currents The book also examines modernist histories and practices around the globe including East and Southeast Asia South Asia Sub Saharan Africa Australia and Oceania Europe Latin America the Middle East and the Arab World as well as the United States and Canada A detailed introduction provides an overview of the scholarly terrain and highlights different themes and concerns that emerge in the volume The Modernist World is essential reading for those new to the subject as well as more advanced scholars in the area offering clear introductions alongside new and refreshing insights Sexual Harassment, Law and Human Rights in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye,Satang Nabaneh,Toun

Adebanjo,2023-07-17 This book delves into the endemic and pervasive issue of sexual harassment in Africa examining it as a gendered expression of power and a gross violation of human rights It explores sexual harassment in various sectors including domestic work academia and the informal economy across a range of African countries The book also highlights the sexual harassment experienced by vulnerable populations such as internally displaced people people with disabilities and women and girls traveling by air With a keen focus on the intersection of law feminism and human rights the book analyzes the role of the courts and national human rights institutions in addressing sexual harassment drawing lessons from other jurisdictions This book is a must read for researchers policymakers and civil society organizations interested in gender power relations and women s rights in Africa and beyond

Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens,Nerina Bosman,2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics

Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk,Jimmy Pieterse,2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology s two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde s fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline's epistemology and political positionality

A Homiletical Praxeology on the Persuasiveness of Literary Forms Ferdi P. Kruger, 2025-04-29 This book is aimed at academic scholars and preachers who deal with homiletical praxeology weekly Its purpose is to focus on the rhetorical appeal of the Biblical text which is alluded to from the viewpoint of the five preaching blocks according to Matthew's Gospel and the Hebrew sermon The book's uniqueness is encapsulated in the idea that it is a practical theological and homiletical study Consequently the book offers empirical perspectives on literary forms and an interdisciplinary engagement with neighbour sciences before presenting normative perspectives This book posits that faith communities should be exposed to more literary forms to realise that the library of the Gospel and its literature does have a rhetorical appeal that should be preached according to its purpose The unique structure and way the Gospel portrays the Kingdom that has come near as well as the Hebrews sermon offering perspectives on attitude change could enrich a homiletical practice

Dutch in Contrast Gunther Vogelaer, Dietha Koster, Torsten Leuschner, 2020-03-09 Designed as a contribution to contrastive linguistics the present volume brings up to date the comparison of German with its closest neighbour Dutch and other Germanic relatives like English Afrikaans and the Scandinavian languages It takes its inspiration from the idea of a Germanic Sandwich i e the hypothesis that sets of genetically related languages diverge in systematic ways in diverse domains of the linguistic system Its contributions set out to test this approach against new phenomena or data from synchronic diachronic and for the first time in a Sandwich related volume psycholinguistic perspectives With topics ranging from nickname formation to the IPP aka Ersatzinfinitiv from the grammaticalisation of the definite article to s retraction and from the role of verb second order in the acquisition of L2 English to the psycholinguistics of gender the volume appeals to students and specialists in modern and historical linguistics psycholinguistics translation studies language pedagogy and cognitive science providing a wealth of fresh insights into the relationships of German with its closest relatives while highlighting the potential inherent in the integration of different methodological traditions Paradise Lost, 2022-06-13 Paradise Lost Race and

Racism in Post apartheid South Africa is about the continuing salience of race and persistence of racism in post apartheid South Africa The chapters in the volume illustrate the multiple ways in which race and racism are manifested and propose various strategies to confront racial inequality racism and the power structure that underpins it while exploring how through a renewed commitment to a non racial society apartheid racial categories can be put under erasure at exactly the time they are being reinforced Law, Religion, and Freedom W. Cole Durham, Jr., Javier Martínez-Torrón, Donlu D Thayer, 2021-02-22

This book examines major conceptual challenges confronting freedom of religion or belief in contemporary settings The volume brings together chapters by leading experts from law religious studies and international relations who provide perspectives from both sides of the Atlantic At a time when the polarization of culture wars is aggravating tensions between secular and religious views about accommodating the conscientious claims of individuals and groups and when the right to freedom of religion itself is facing misunderstanding and erosion the work provides welcome clarity and depth Some chapters adopt a primarily conceptual and historical approach others analyze particular difficulties or conflicts that have emerged in European and American jurisdictions along with concrete applications and recommendations for the future The book will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers with an interest in law religion and human rights Political

Science in South Africa Peter Vale, Pieter Fourie, 2016-01-13 In 2013 and in 2014 respectively the South African Association of Political Studies SAAPS and Politikon the South African Journal of Political Studies celebrate their 40th anniversary Also in April 2014 South Africa celebrates twenty years since the advent of the post Apartheid democracy and the birth of the rainbow nation This book provides a timely account of the birth and evolution of South African politics over the past four decades but also of the study of Political Science and International Relations in this country Fourteen political scientists contribute chapters to this volume situating the study of politics within its global context and recounting the development of politics as a field of study at South African universities The fourteen contributions evaluate the state of the discipline s and suggest conclusions that are surprising and in many instances unsettling not only with regards to what and how politics is taught but also how its study has variously gained and lost pertinence for South Africans understanding of their own polity as well as its place in the world The implications are uncomfortable and pose interesting challenges for South African scholarship pedagogy and national self reflection This book was published as a special issue of Politikon

Mining and Community in South Africa Philippe Burger, Lochner Marais, Deirdre van Rooyen, 2017-09-22 Mining has played a key role in the growth of many towns in South Africa This growth has been accompanied by a proliferation of informal settlements by pressure to provide basic services and by institutional pressures in local government to support mining Fragile municipal finance changing social attributes the pressures of shift work on mineworkers the impact on the physical environment and perceived new inequalities between mineworkers contract workers and original inhabitants have further complicated matters Mining growth has however also led to substantial local economic benefits to existing business and it has contributed to a mushrooming of new enterprises While the relationship between mining and economic development at the country level has received adequate attention in existing literature less is known about the consequences of mining at the local level This book investigates the local impacts of mining in South Africa focusing on employment inequality housing business development worker well being governance municipal finance planning and the environment Taking an interdisciplinary approach Mining and Community in South Africa will be of interest to scholars of South Africa economic development labour and industry politics and planning Self-Directed Learning in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic Josef de Beer, Neal Petersen, Elsa Mentz, Robert J. Balfour, 2023-03-01 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education with a specific focus on research into the enhancement of self directed learning and contributes to the discourse on creating a disposition towards self directed learning during the social and academic integration of first year students within higher education institutions Two chapters also deal with research on the development of self directed learning and nuanced understandings of the chosen professions of Law and Health Sciences students The target audience is scholars working in the fields of teacher education self directed learning engaging pedagogies problem based learning cooperative learning and gamification Whereas social constructivist learning theory served as an overarching theoretical framework for the virtual excursions the various chapters in the book also draw on other secondary theories such as self determination theory social interdependence theory gender theory and the with fitness model of Kounin 1970

Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts Charamba, Erasmios, 2022-06-24 Several factors have resulted in increased intra and inter state migration This has led to an increase in the enrollment of students with diverse linguistics backgrounds placing more academic demands on educators Linguistic diversity presents both opportunities and challenges for educators across the educational spectrum Language ideologies profoundly shape and constrain the use of language as a resource for learning in multilingual or linguistically diverse classrooms While English has become the world language most communities remain and are becoming more and more multicultural multilingual and diverse The Handbook of Research on Teaching in Multicultural and Multilingual Contexts moves beyond the constraints of current language ideologies and enables the use of a wide range of resources from local semiotic repertoires It examines the phenomenon of language use language teaching multiculturalism and multilingualism in different learning areas giving practitioners a voice to spotlight their efforts in order to keep their teaching afloat in culturally and linguistically diverse situations Covering topics such as Indigenous languages multilingual deaf communities and intercultural competence this major reference work is an essential resource for educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers educational psychologists linguists education administrators and policymakers government officials researchers and academicians
