Illustrated B M Bower B M Bower,2021-02-06 Helen May and her brother Vic have moved to the New Mexico desert after their father arranges to buy property there to save Helen May from the TB which is threatening her health He was desperate to make sure his daughter did not die the same way her mother had but in my opinion he went a little too far in his arrangements I suppose the purchase could not have happened any other way and Helen May also felt compelled to go ahead and move to the land even though she did not really want to go but still his action was a bit of a shock Anyway she meets Starr whose real name is not at all cowboy ish or Western and does not realize that he is not just some desert drifter he is actually a Secret Service man working undercover as a stock buyer while he tries to find out as much as he can about a suspected plot of treason Yes it all sounds a little far fetched and it was but the story was still entertaining B. Free Air Sinclair Lewis,2021-11-09 Free Air Sinclair Lewis Fame was just around the corner when Sinclair Lewis published Free Air in 1919 a year before Main Street The latter novel zeroed in on the town of Gopher Prairie the former stopped there briefly and then took the reader by automobile in search of America Free Air heads toward a West that was brimming with possibilities for suddenly mobile Americans at the end of a world war The vehicle in Lewiss novel not a Model T but a Gomez Dep roadster takes Claire Boltwood and her father from Minnesota to Seattle exposing them all to the perils of early motoring On the road the upper crust Boltwoods are at once more insignificant and more noble The greatest distance to be overcome is the social one between Claire and a young mechanic named Milt who with a cat as his traveling companion follows close behind If Free Air anticipates many of the themes of Lewiss later novels it also looks forward to a genre that includes John Steinbecks Travels with Charley and Josh Greenfeld and Paul Mazurskys Harry and Tonto And the character of Claire blazing her own trail across the West looks back to the nineteenth century pioneer woman and ahead to the independent minded movie heroines played by Katherine Hepburn
