Intake 131 Sandy Sanderson,2015-07-14 In 1973 Sandy Sanderson attended School of Infantry in Gwelo in what was then central Rhodesia for officer training Now more than 40 years on he has written a book based on the diary he kept The result is a frank detailed and sometimes humorous account of the training as it happened The book will be intriguing to people from all parts of the world with an interest in the military In June 1977 Time magazine commented Man for man the Rhodesian Army ranks amongst the world s finest fighting units If this were true the training must surely have contributed Recruits were trained by some of the toughest and most experienced military instructors in the world all of whom possessed a varied if profane vocabulary As Sandy put it Any Rhodesian drill instructor could string a sentence together consisting entirely of expletives apart from the odd indefinite article and make perfect sense In spite of this they were hugely respected and their expertise undoubtedly saved many lives Light List United States.
