Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana Joshua Clegg Caffery,2013-11-05 Alan Lomax s prolific sixty four year career as a folklorist and musicologist began with a trip across the South and into the heart of Louisiana s Cajun country during the height of the Great Depression In 1934 his father John then curator of the Library of Congress s Archive of American Folk Song took an eighteen year old Alan and a 300 pound aluminum disk recorder into the rice fields of Jennings along the waterways of New Iberia and behind the gates of Angola State Penitentiary to collect vestiges of African American and Acadian musical tradition These recordings now serve as the foundational document of indigenous Louisiana music Although widely recognized by scholars as a key artifact in the understanding of American vernacular music most of the recordings by John and Alan Lomax during their expedition across the central southern fringe of Louisiana were never transcribed or translated much less studied in depth This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive examination of the 1934 corpus and unveils a multifaceted story of traditional song in one of the country's most culturally dynamic regions Through his textual and comparative study of the songs contained in the Lomax collection Joshua Clegg Caffery provides a musical history of Louisiana that extends beyond Cajun music and zydeco to the rural blues Irish and English folk songs play party songs slave spirituals and traditional French folk songs that thrived at the time of these recordings Intimate in its presentation of Louisiana folklife and broad in its historical scope Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana honors the legacy of John and Alan Lomax by retrieving these musical relics from obscurity and ensuring their understanding and appreciation for generations to come Includes Complete transcriptions of the 1934 Lomax field recordings in southwestern Louisiana Side by side translations from French to English Photographs from the 1934 field trip and biographical details about the performers

Don't Fall in Love with Me, Mr. Satan Only love sunshine, That night Johnson the master of Joe's family pinned her against the couch Angeline you have to be aware that marriage means a man and a woman have to fulfill their obligations right Our marriage is just a contract A contract also means legal responsibilities Angeline You can't escape from this Angeline was the vicious adopted daughter who had hurt the family that brought her up In her life there were only three things she regretted the most First on the night her mother died she begged the wrong person which made her lose her virginity for nothing and suffer four years in jail Second when she was released from prison she lost her liver to take revenge on her father's family and then attracted Charles who was Andy's boyfriend at the time Third she shouldn't have fallen in love with that man and put herself in danger One day I finally learned to cherish Then I looked back only to find that some things were gone and could never be found again This is Book 4 of Don't Fall in Love with Me Mr Satan 10 books
