Coming to Grips with Higher Education Michael T. Nietzel,2018-10-01 The American university faces many challenges It has become too costly and inefficient It fails too many students It spends too much time and money on matters that should not be its priorities It clings to policies and practices that need to go away And it is too disconnected from the students and communities it must serve This book proposes several changes to standard policies in our colleges and universities that will sharpen their missions redirect funding to the highest priorities improve student learning and attainment redefine faculty engagement slow down spending on amenities and reduce the excesses of intercollegiate athletics The recommended reforms remain true to the essential academic values embraced by the academy but at the same time they recognize and respond to the new realities facing higher education

The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States,1928 The Best Value Colleges 2013 Robert Franek,Laura Braswell,Princeton Review,David Soto,2013-02-05 Looks at one hundred fifty colleges and universities across the country that provide superb academic studies top notch facilities and other excellent features for a lot less money than the other schools

Becoming Great Universities Richard J. Light,Allison Jegla,2024-08-06 Becoming Great Universities arose from co author Richard J Light s visits over the past twenty years to more than 250 campuses and his conversations with presidents administrators faculty and students Light and co author Allison Jegla have distilled the topics arising from these conversations into the ten chapters that frame their book with emphasis on the prospect of promoting a culture of continuous innovation for creating value for students This book is precisely about the university s teaching and student development mission not research The overwhelming evidence in the higher education literature asserts that it is on the teaching and education side that our colleges and universities are most challenged and therefore that is where the greatest improvements can and must be made Light and Jegla s message to higher education leaders is that improving performance depends to a great extent on their purposeful development of the institution s culture as a community and on leveraging this culture through the encouragement of constructive working relationships across all sectors of campus including administration staff faculty and students Their chapters cover the following topics how to help students from under resourced backgrounds how to encourage students to invest their time and talents beneficially how to attract students from non traditional backgrounds to campus how to improve learning outcomes through innovative teaching how to assess learning how to productively elicit student opinions ideas and advice how to facilitate constructive interaction among students from differing backgrounds how to build opportunities for lifelong learning and how to inspire students to think globally Throughout their book Light and Jegla emphasize practical lessons for promoting measures of innovation on each front With a broad spectrum of institutions in mind the authors present dozens of no cost or low cost actionable initiatives that faculty university leaders and even students can implement always in the spirit of working toward their campus s sustained improvement over time

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities
