Re-reading Pío Baroja and English Literature Katharine Murphy,2004 This volume investigates a broad range of structural connections between P o Baroja s early fiction and the novels of his contemporaries in England and Ireland with prominence given to Joseph Conrad Thomas Hardy E M Forster and James Joyce Starting from the premise that Spain has been neglected in studies which assess the evolution of the European novel at the turn of the twentieth century and challenging the insular concept of the Generation of 1898 the author reassesses the relationship between Baroja and English literature Particular emphasis is given to renderings of consciousness the role and identity of the artist European landscapes and questions of form genre and representation in the novels under scrutiny The book produces new readings of Baroja in the context of early twentieth century English fiction The Mayor of Casterbridge (Unabridged) Thomas Hardy,2019-04-06 The Mayor of Casterbridge The Life and Death of a Man of Character is an 1886 novel by the English author Thomas Hardy One of Hardy s Wessex novels it is set in a fictional rural England with Casterbridge standing in for Dorchester in Dorset where the author spent his youth It was first published as a weekly serialisation from January 1886 The novel is considered to be one of Hardy s masterpieces although it has been criticised for incorporating too many incidents a consequence of the author trying to include something in every weekly published instalment Plot Summary In a fit of drunken anger Michael Henchard sells his wife and baby daughter for five guineas at a country fair Over the course of the following years he manages to establish himself as a respected and prosperous pillar of the community of Casterbridge but behind his success there always lurk the shameful secret of his past and a personality prone to self destructive pride and temper Subtitled A Story of a Man of Character Hardy s powerful and sympathetic study of the heroic but deeply flawed Henchard is also an intensely dramatic work tragically played out against the vivid backdrop of a close knit Dorsetshire town *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
