Developing Leaders Mary Hladio, 2017-07-11 How to close the gap between job satisfaction and genuine engagement and create training and development plans that produce passionate leaders Many companies and managers fall back on traditional and standardized training events when trying to improve upon broad areas that can't really be managed such as change time and stress Mary Hladio knows that these approaches don't work and the numbers prove she's right Research by the Society for Human Resource Management SHRM shows that while over eighty percent of employees are generally satisfied with their current positions less than seventy percent feel passion and excitement for their job and just over half feel tuned in at work That's a thirty percent drop off between satisfaction and engagement To properly influence culture in a way that results in better engagement business owners and company executives must first understand what optimal engagement would look like in their company and that's what Developing Leaders is all about. It is not simply designed to show people the problems with their current approaches but to provide workable solutions and a blueprint for how to link a company's development objectives to their corporate strategy as a precursor to creating any developmental plan. Hladio tackles one of the most critical components of your success. You will begin to learn both how to be a leader and how to identify others as true and worthy leaders.
