Path of Life graf Leo Tolstoy, 2002 Path of Life was the last book written by Lev Tolstoy Although the great nineteenth century Russian novelist is known in English speaking countries for his major novels War and Peace Anna Karenina and Resurrection He is less known for his numerous religious writings which present a challenging and original point of view These works have been undervalued as evidenced by the fact that Path of Life is translated here fully in English The reader will notice that Tolstoy anticipated many of the ideas presented in contemporary books on spirituality such as the observation that our thoughts determine our lives Tolstoy began to write this book in 1910 the last year of his life when he was 82 years old Given that he began the book in January and completed it in October of the same year one would think the writing went quickly but it only seems that way Tolstoy actually had been developing the themes presented in Path of Life for the last thirty years of his life In Path of Life Tolstoy defines how to find continuous happiness in life and how to die without fear In presenting his views he cites his own ideas and includes many quotations from an eclectic collection of ancient and modern writers

Path of Life Reverend L. N. Ambridge, 2011-03-25 When I finally made the right decision and accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Saviour I was sure I was on the right path Then I began to meet church people That's when the confusion started It seemed like they all called themselves something different Some people were Christians Some people were believers Some people were born again Some people were saved I was baffled What was I What category did I fit into Did each of these names have a different method did each one follow a different path I didn't know what category I fit into and after a while I wasn't sure if I fit into any category because no one seemed to agree on what they all meant I kept finding different interpretations of what I thought was the truth I know that God is not the author of confusion So I started to pray I started asking God for the answer I have learned one thing Regardless of what we call ourselves or how we interpret it or apply it there is only one Truth Regardless of the route we think we have to take to reach Heaven there is only one path for a Christian that is the Path of Life There is only one roadmap for a born again believer that is the Word of God the Bible
