

Writing Topic Sentences Lesson Plan and Notes

Common Core Standards

Teaching topic sentences satisfies the following common core standards.

- W.9-10.1a Introduce precise claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that establishes clear relationships among claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.
- W.9-10.3a Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.
- W.9-10.4 Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

What is a Topic Sentence?

Start by discussing the following. You may want to have students copy this information before they do the assignment.

The topic sentence contains the central idea around which a paragraph is developed. A good one has the following six characteristics:

1. It introduces the topic of a paragraph without announcing it.
2. It hooks the reader.
3. It plants questions in the readers' mind.
4. It uses thought-provoking words.
5. It is usually the first sentence; however, it can occur anywhere in the paragraph or it can be implied.
6. It provides a transition from the previous paragraph.

Not all topic sentences will contain every single characteristic. A writer should strive for the ideal; the ideal, however, is not always ideal.
