The Politics of Rhetoric Bernard K. Duffy,Martin Jacobi,1993-04-30 Richard M Weaver 1910-1963 was one of the leading rhetoricians of the 1950s whose philosophical and pedagogical writings helped revitalize interest in rhetoric His rhetorical contributions are difficult to separate from his conservative stances on social and political issues and indeed he espoused the cultural role of rhetoric conceiving of his intellectual task as one of reinventing a philosophical conservatism and employing rhetorical theory to oppose liberalism and modernism Today his politics would be viewed as extreme by liberals feminists and civil libertarians on the other hand his theories laid the philosophical groundwork for contemporary American political conservatism and his argumentation on a number of social issues remains pertinent This first full length study of Weaver examines the relationship between his rhetorical theory and his cultural views focusing on the rhetorical insights for instance his conception of language as sermonic its function being to influence others to think and act according to the speaker's moral precepts and ideally to convey the abiding truth of a culture Authors Duffy and Jacobi advance the idea that Weaver was at his best as an epideictic rhetor engaged in the celebration of abstract values and at his worst as a forensic rhetor pleading conservative causes with no more than the pretense of impartiality Based largely on primary materials but with adroit application of previous criticism this work will be valuable for a wide range of research specialties in rhetoric and public address , Writing Argumentative Essays Nancy V.
