

Tuck Everlasting

Prologue: The story starts on a hot August day, and we learn three things: Mae Tuck is going to see her two sons; Winnie Foster is thinking of running away from home; and a stranger comes to the Fosters' house.

Chapter 1: Nothing much happens in this chapter. The narrator just tells us about the setting of the coming story. She talks a little of the houses out in the countryside and she describes the nearby Treegap wood. The wood belongs to the Foster family, but nobody goes there, including Winnie Foster, the daughter of the Foster family. Not even the cows that have to make a detour to get to their pastures have seen inside the wood. The narrator tells us it is good that people don't know the secret of the wood, because if they did, it would be a disaster for the whole world!

Chapter 2: Mae Tuck wakes up on a hot sunny morning. She feels happy because her sons are coming back the next day. She hasn't seen them for 10 years. Her husband is not in such a good mood and is worried when Mae says she is going out to meet the boys. As she gets dressed ready to leave, the narrator tells us that she and her husband have not got older or changed in 87 years!

Chapter 3: Winnie Foster is sitting outside on the grass on the baking hot August day, talking to a toad. She also is not in a very good mood. After a while both her mother and her grandmother call out to her, telling her not to get dirty and to come inside. Winnie wishes she had a sister or a brother, so she could have a little freedom to do what she wants and go where she wants. She tells the toad she's going to run away from home.

Chapter 4: It is sunset of the same day and a stranger comes up the road to the gate of Winnie's house. He is dressed rather strangely in a yellow suit and a black hat. But Winnie starts talking to him and she quite likes him. The stranger asks her questions about the house and her family. Just then her grandmother comes out. As she is talking to the stranger, they hear sounds of music coming from nearby Treegap wood. Winnie has never heard the music before, but her grandmother says that it is elf music. She takes Winnie back inside the house. The stranger stays listening to the music, looking very happy.

Chapter 5 : Winnie wakes up and decides not to run away after all. She is too afraid. Instead, she decides she will go and explore the wood, to see
