Milkyway Media Milkyway Media,2019-10-25 Tuesdays with Morrie 1997 by Mitch Albom is a memoir that describes visits he made to his former professor Morrie Schwartz while Morrie was dying of ALS in 1995 In 1979 at his college graduation Mitch runs into his favorite college professor Morrie Purchase this in depth summary to learn more Digging Up the Past Again Liborio Altamore,2012 I have always been intrigued by the fact that most of the ancient people including very famous philosophers politicians army generals and even kings and emperors never doubted or questioned the existence of the gods Nowadays someone who admitted to believing in the gods would be considered stupid or absolutely crazy If we consider personalities such as Socrates Aristotle Epicurus or Alexander the Great to mention just a few as they all believed in many gods can they for this reason be classified as stupid or even crazy Man as the most intelligent creature on Earth has always been aware of an extraordinarily powerful being creator of the world God This awareness has inseminated in Man s mind the religious feelings If there is only one God why have men believed in many gods Weren t the gods only myth Did the gods really exist On Earth existed also other beings superior to humans They claimed to own Heaven and Earth and to have created Man the gods If there is only one God why there are so many religions Is the God in which we firmly believe only one of the many gods of the ancient past Can it be proved that they really existed Have the gods been confused with the real God the Creator Could they have manipulated the genetic structure of mankind How could that have happened I want to find explanations that withstand intellectual scrutiny and clarify many arguments created by such issues I am presenting an alternative way in an effort to avoid the errors of the past Consider this book as a journey to the top of the highest mountain at the end you will be astounded by the extraordinary view

Managing Stress: Skills for Self-Care, Personal Resiliency and Work-Life Balance in a Rapidly Changing World Brian Luke Seaward, 2020-12-08 Updated to provide a modern look at the daily stressors evolving in our ever changing society Managing Stress Skills for Self Care Personal Resiliency and Work Life Balance in a Rapidly Changing World Tenth Edition provides a comprehensive approach to stress management honoring the balance and harmony of the mind body spirit and emotions Referred to as the authority on stress management by students and professionals this book equips readers with the tools needed to identify and manage stress while also coaching on how to strive for health and balance in these changing times The holistic approach taken by internationally acclaimed lecturer and author Brian Luke Seaward gently guides the reader to greater levels of mental emotional physical and spiritual well being by emphasizing the importance of the mind body spirit connection Lessons in Loss and Living Michele A. Reiss,2010-11-02 Dr Michele Reiss an expert in the field of death and dying specializes in helping clients cope with life threatening illnesses and helping their families through the grieving process A highly respected therapist she counseled Randy Pausch author of The Last Lecture and his wife Jai as Randy was dying of pancreatic cancer Now Dr Reiss provides comfort and counsel for readers who are coping with the challenges of serious illness or grief Through real life examples of people who have dealt with cancer and other illnesses she has given us a book about hope and the art of living and loving well despite significant adversity This beautifully written inspiring book reminds the rest of us that time is precious and that we should live our lives fully generously and with joy Handbook for Mortals Joanne Lynn, MD,Joan Harrold, MD,Janice Lynch Schuster,2011-06-16 Handbook for Mortals is warmly addressed to all those who wish to approach the final years of life with greater awareness of what to expect and greater confidence about how to make the end of their lives a time of growth comfort and meaningful reflection Stoic Empathy Shermin Kruse,2025-04-08 Correct the power imbalances in your work and life with a science backed practice that combines the rigor of Stoic philosophy with the relational impact of empathy Stoicism combined with empathy may sound like a contradiction in terms But when these seemingly opposing forces are harnessed together they have the power to change your life From surviving missile attacks and political oppression in Iran to leading high stakes legal teams and negotiations in corporate America Shermin Kruse s journey fuels her mission to merge empathy and stoicism as tools for navigating power justice and human connection in every facet of life In this eye opening book she offers you this radical perspective shift anchored in up to the minute research to help you navigate life s challenges with power and principles We often think of empathy as an emotional stance we feel what someone else is feeling But Kruse outlines a form of empathy that s based in cognition not emotion a way for us to understand what the other person is thinking and feeling while keeping a distance from their feeling state and shows us how we can strategically maneuver our level of engagement from emotional empathy to cognitive empathy in different circumstances Then she utilizes Stoic philosophy and modern science to outline the how of emotional regulation and control The bridge she builds between Stoicism and empathy gives us the knowledge and discipline we need to Calmly assess the power dynamics of any situation Understand and manage our own emotions as well as the emotions of others Defuse danger and turn conflict into connection Skillfully steer a challenging conversation toward the result we want Whether you re a leader striving to succeed in your role with integrity an educator seeking to guide curious minds with compassion a parent nurturing resilience in your children or simply facing a personal or professional crossroads Stoic Empathy is an essential toolkit for negotiating success in every area of your life Give Sorrow Words John H. Harvey, 2016-03-23 Throughout our lives we are influenced by the sensation of loss Whether implicit or obvious the impact of this sense of loss affects our daily thinking and behavior This new text provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of loss via exploration into three major types of loss loss of important relationships divorce or perhaps the dissolution of important relationships and friendships losses that damage who we are our self esteem loss of employment and losses resulting from victimization being the target of violence or prejudice loss of home in a natural disaster Students of sociology theology and family studies will find this text of key interest Moreover professionals in these fields including the fields of trauma and loss will appreciate the thorough literature review practical language clinical interventions and case highlights Care for the Dying Andrew Davison, Sioned Evans, 2014-07-16 This wise and practical handbook written by a palliative care physician and a priest with experience in hospice ministry addresses the needs of the dying their relatives and friends and also those who provide support and care Recognizing that these needs are physical emotional and spiritual Care for the Dying draws on insights from current best practice in palliative care pastoral experience and theological reflection It explores the following the availability of care for the dying person communicating with the family responding to a request for assisted suicide forgiveness reconciliation and anointing saying goodbyes the mystery of suffering dying with dignity supporting the bereaved caring for the carers Throughout there is a helpful emphasis on understanding the care of the dying as a privilege as well as a responsibility on the importance of proper self care and of gaining strength from working as a team Many people including medical professionals and clergy are fearful of what to say or do when faced with approaching death This resource will deepen understanding and build courage and confidence Reading and the Reference Librarian Juris Dilevko, Lisa Gottlieb, 2014-10-16 Reference librarians are no longer expected to know much about the information they find they are merely expected to find it Technological competency rather than knowledge has become the order of the day In many respects reference service has become a matter of typing search terms into a library's online catalog or a web search engine and providing the patron with the results of the search Calling for a re intellectualization of reference librarianship this book suggests another approach to providing quality reference service reading The authors surveyed both academic reference librarians and public library reference personnel in the United States and Canada about their reading habits From the 950 responses the authors present findings about the extent to which librarians read newspapers periodicals fiction and nonfiction and recount and analyze stories about how reading has made them better librarians The authors also report that North American professors in the humanities and social sciences believe that the best reference librarians are those who have wide ranging subject based knowledge as opposed to the type of process based functional knowledge that is increasingly dominating the curricula of many Library and Information Science programs In A Split Second Lisa Constantine,2021-07-19 In this powerful book Lisa Constantine reveals her compelling journey from victim to victor after a tragic car accident that nearly claimed her life 20 years ago This optimistic story demonstrates how to make sense of horrific injuries and rise above life s challenges and adversities Today Lisa s recovery is still on going Her story is a reminder of how life can change in a split second and that everyday should be lived with intention and the importance in life to know who you are Lisa is now an author writer and inspirational public speaker Building Trust in Teacher Evaluations Shelly M.
