A Critical History of Health, Sport, and Physical Education Michelle Gorzanelli, Jorge Knijnik, 2025-07-01 This book fills a gap in literature by generating a combined history of Physical Education PE School Sport SS and Health Education HE in New South Wales NSW public schools from 1880 to 2024 It includes broad discussions on how political issues such as the World Wars influenced i the PE curriculum which was used as a medium to prepare a fit army ii the school sport system which acted as an expression of national strength via showcasing sporting prowess on the international stages of the Olympic Games and iii the health education curriculum which addressed infectious diseases resulting from poor hygiene associated with poverty The book also adopts a socio cultural perspective to the constructs of PE SS and HE curricula and highlights significant local national and international historical events and issues as factors driving curriculum developments and paradigm shifts in these subjects in the NSW public education and beyond It brings new and engendering socio historical findings to the discipline fields of PE SS and HE combined with an innovative methodology in critical historiographical studies

Sydney's Century Peter Spearritt, 2000 In this lively portrait of Sydney's development Peter Spearritt traces a century in the life of the city from the celebrations of the Federation of Australia in 1901 to the 2000 Olympic Games He describes the extraordinary growth of the city and its sprawling suburbs and the transition from a port and a manufacturing center to an international financial hub

Designer Suburbs Judith O'Callaghan, Charles Pickett, 2012-11-01 In the 1950s 60s and 70s architects like Harry Seidler Robin Boyd Ken Woolley Michael Dysart and Graeme Gunn applied their talents to project homes bringing high end design to the suburbs Backed by Pettit Sevitt Merchant Builders and other project builders architects created small deceptively simple houses which transformed the look of suburbia Today the distance between the architectural profession and suburban housing has never been greater with Australia's super sized energy guzzling project homes the biggest in the world With photographs by Max Dupain David Moore Wolfgang Sievers and Eric Sierins alongside original plans Designer Suburbs explores the relationship between architects builders and affordable housing since 1900 and the lessons we can learn from twentieth century designer suburbs

Youth, Class and Everyday Struggles Steven Threadgold, 2017-09-13 The concept of everyday struggles can enliven our understanding of the lives of young people and how social class is made and remade This book invokes a Bourdieusian spirit to think about the ways young people are pushed and pulled by the normative demands directed at them from an early age whilst they reflexively understand that allegedly available incentives for making the right choices and working hard financial and familial security social status and job satisfaction are a declining prospect In Youth Class and Everyday Struggles the figures of those classed as hipsters and bogans are used to analyse how representation works to form a symbolic and moral economy that produces and polices fuzzy class boundaries Further to this the practices of young people around DIY cultures are analysed to illustrate struggles to create a satisfying and meaningful existence while negotiating between study work and creative passions By thinking through different modalities of struggles which revolve around meaning making and identity creativity and authenticity Threadgold brings Bourdieu's sociological practice together with theories of affect emotion morals and values to broaden our understanding of how young people make choices adapt strategise succeed fail and make do Youth Class and Everyday Struggles will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers of fields including Youth Studies Class and Inequality Work and Careers Subcultures Media and Creative Industries Social Theory and Bourdieusian Theory

The Semiotics of Movement in Space Robert James McMurtrie, 2016-12-01 The Semiotics of Movement in Space explores how people move through buildings and interact with objects in space Focusing on visitors to the Museum of Contemporary Art in Sydney McMurtrie analyses and interprets movement and space relations to highlight new developments and applications of spatial semiotics as he proposes that people's movement options have the potential to transform the meaning of a particular space He illustrates people's interaction with microcamera footage of people's movement through the museum from a first person point of view thereby providing an alternative complementary perspective on how buildings are actually used The book offers effective tools for practitioners to analyse people s actual and potential movement patterns to rethink spatial design options from a semiotic perspective The applicability of the semiotic principles developed in this book is demonstrated by examining movement options in a restaurant and a caf with the hope that the principles can be developed and applied to other sites of displays such as shopping centres and transportation hubs This book should appeal to scholars of visual communication semiotics multimodal discourse analysis and visitor studies Joint

Dance Music Tami Gadir, 2023-08-10 For some people at some times in some places on some drugs dance music can be a gateway to transformative even transcendent experiences With the help of skilled DJs dancers can reach euphoric states discard their egos and feel social barriers dissolve Dance floors can be sites of openness subversion and even small scale acts of political resistance At a minimum dance music lightens the burdens of contemporary life At its best dance music offers glimpses of better worlds Yet even where dance music communities are built on principles of resistance and liberation they nevertheless share the grittier realities of the rest of the world Dance Music makes the case that dance music is ordinary and that something exceeding the social and spatiotemporal bounds of the dance floor is required for the transformative promise of dance music to be realized
