Sachar, 2010-07-23 Two years after being released from Camp Green Lake, Armpit is home in Austin, Texas, trying to turn his life around. But it's hard when you have a record and everyone expects the worst from you. The only person who believes in him is Ginny, his 10-year-old disabled neighbor. Together they are learning to take small steps. And he seems to be on the right path until X-Ray, a buddy from Camp Green Lake, comes up with a get-rich-quick scheme. This leads to a chance encounter with teen pop sensation Kira DeLeon, and suddenly his life spins out of control with only one thing for certain: He'll never be the same again. In his first major novel since Holes, critically acclaimed novelist Louis Sachar uses his signature wit combined with a unique blend of adventure and deeply felt characters to explore issues of race, the nature of celebrity, the invisible connections that determine a person's life, and what it takes to stay on course. Doing the right thing is never a wrong choice, but a small step in the right direction. The Ultimate Teen Book Guide Daniel Hahn, Leonie Flynn, Susan
