Gert Hofmann

Silent Scream English Edition:

Muhenda (English version) Wilson Miguel, After the success and also the breaking of the law of the black lives matter movement all blacks around the world were expelled forced to return to Africa creating a political division between blacks and whites But the explosion of global warming and the rupture of the ozone layer grants world dominion and power over the only kingdom on the planet that holds natural resources the kingdom of Muhenda in Africa A place where white people were never welcome However an agent of the intelligence of the whites manages to enter Muhenda The king of Muhenda is murdered and the white man is sentenced to death for the crime and as retaliation all the remaining whites were made slaves Years later a dictator and tyrant empire rises dominating all of Africa inflicting terror oppression inequality and pain Led by the new king of Muhenda and the brother of the deceased the emperor Luther Nankela That situation forces Sowety a young African warrior queen and Selena a young white slave to stand up step up and fight against the new system Two different women two enemy races one almost impossible gold freedom

The Palgrave Handbook of Anti-Communist

Persecutions Christian Gerlach, Clemens Six, 2020-12-07 This handbook explores anti communism as an overarching phenomenon of twentieth century global history showing how anti communist policies and practices transformed societies around the world It advances research on anti communism by looking beyond ideologies and propaganda to uncover how these ideas were put into practice Case studies examine the role of states and non state actors in anti communist persecutions and cover a range of topics including social crises capitalist accumulation and dispossession political clientelism and warfare Through its comparative perspective the handbook reveals striking similarities between different cases from various world regions and highlights the numerous long term consequences of anti communism that exceeded by far the struggle against communism in a narrow sense Contributing to the growing body of work on the social history of mass violence this volume is an essential resource for students and scholars interested to understand how twentieth century anti communist persecutions have shaped societies around the world today Chapter 7 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com  Orna Rav-Hon, 1996

Hitchcock

Nonetheless Marc Raymond Strauss, 2006-11-15 Alfred Hitchcock made many great films but he also made many that critics and audiences largely dismissed These least celebrated films despite their admitted flaws and relative obscurity offer much to reward the open minded viewer This critical study examines and reappraises fifteen such films generally overlooked by scholars and Hitchcock aficionados Juno and the Paycock The Skin Game Waltzes from Vienna Jamaica Inn The Paradine Case Under Capricorn I Confess Torn Curtain Number Seventeen Rich and Strange Secret Agent Mr and Mrs Smith Stage Fright The Wrong Man and Topaz Each film is discussed and analyzed in detail revealing the master's touch in many previously unheralded ways Brief assessments of the films from popular review compendia introduce each one and excerpted highlights of numerous works of scholarship are liberally sprinkled throughout the text In addition wonderful rare still photographs from each film are included Readers will come away with a richer sense of the director's talents in these films adding to their appreciation of his work in unexpected ways Brecht and Tragedy Martin Revermann,2021-12-16

Explores Brecht's complex relationship with Greek tragedy and the tragic tradition including significant archival material not seen before Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six,2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies The SAGE Handbook of Writing Development Roger Beard,Debra Myhill,Jeni Riley,Martin

Nystrand,2009-07-09 Writing development is currently the focus of substantial international debate because it is the aspect of literacy education that has been least responsive to central government and state reforms Teaching approaches in writing have been slower to change than those in teaching reading and pupil attainment in writing has increased at a much more modest rate than pupil attainment in reading This handbook critically examines research and theoretical issues that impact on writing development from the early years through to adulthood It provides those researching or teaching literacy with one of the most academically authoritative and comprehensive works in the field With expert contributors from across the world the book represents a detailed and valuable overview of a complex area of study Robert Wilson Maria

Shevtsova,2018-10-25 Robert Wilson is an American European director who is also a performer installation artist writer designer of light and much more besides a crossover polymath who dissolves both generic and geographical boundaries and is a precursor of globalisation in the arts This second edition of Robert Wilson combines an analysis of his main productions situated in their American and European socio cultural and political contexts a focused detailed study of Wilson's pathbreaking Einstein on the Beach a study of Pushkin's Fairy Tales as the foremost example of his folk rock music theatre in the twenty first century an exploration of his visual book workshop and rehearsal methods and collaborative procedures a study of his aesthetic principles and the elements of composition that distinguish his directorial approach a series of practical exercises for students and practitioners highlighting Wilson s technique As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners offer unbeatable value for today s student

Aesthetics of Early Sound Film Daniel Wiegand,2025-10-01 This volume takes a fresh look at the various aesthetics emerging globally in the early sound film era with a focus on the films fundamentally experimental and inventive character By considering films and production contexts often neglected in film studies it strives to counter the still dominant view of the transitional period as a time of yet to be perfected forerunners of classical sound film Instead authors highlight the sense of fruitful uncertainty in this period of media change and transformation Subjects covered include visual and auditory style the uses of speech music and noises aesthetic conceptions in sound film theory and intermedial aesthetics The volume s scope is decidedly international covering production and reception contexts in the Soviet Union Japan the USA Germany France Italy the UK and Switzerland

Mother Courage and Her Children Bertolt Brecht,2022-05-19 This new Student Edition featuring the classic John Willett translation of the play includes an introduction by Katherine Hollander which explores the following Contexts Thirty Years War 1618 1648 World War II and exile sources influential figures such as Brecht Margarete Steffin Helene Weigel and Karin Michaelis Themes war nature capitalism Dramatic devices epic theatre Production history and critical reception Academic debate Marxist feminist and postmodernist Further study Widely regarded as Brecht s best work Mother Courage and her Children was written in 1938 9 and received its premiere in Zurich in 1941 Mother Courage a canteen woman serving with the Swedish Army during the Thirty Years War 1618 48 follows the armies selling provisions and liquor to the troops Both her sons die in the war and her dumb daughter Katrin is mortally wounded as she beats a drum to warn the town of Halle of an impending attack Yet all the while Mother Courage continues her travels with her wagon indomitably businesslike calculating how she can make material profit from the war and turn conflict into capital

German and European Poetics After the Holocaust Gert Hofmann,2011 Crisis presents chances for change and creativity Adorno s famous dictum that writing poetry after Auschwitz would be barbaric has haunted discourse on poetics but has also given rise to poetic and theoretical acts of resistance The essays in this volume discuss postwar poetics in terms of new poetological directions and territory rather than merely destruction of traditions Embedded in the discourse triggered by Adorno the volume s foci include the work of Paul Celan Gottfried Benn and Ingeborg Bachmann Other German writers discussed are Ilse Aichinger Rose Auslander Charlotte Beradt Thomas Kling Heiner Muller and Nelly Sachs concrete poetry is also treated The final section offers comparative views of the poetics of European literary figures such as Jean Paul Sartre Andre Malraux and Danilo Kis and a consideration of the aesthetics of Claude Lanzmann s film Shoah

The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide

Shame and Modernity in Britain Anne-Marie Kilday, David S. Nash, 2017-02-20 This book argues that traditional images and practices associated with shame did not recede with the coming of modern Britain Following the authors acclaimed and successful nineteenth century book Cultures of Shame this new monograph moves forward to look at shame in the modern era As such it investigates how social and cultural expectations in both war and peace changing attitudes to sexual identities and sexual behaviour new innovations in media and changing representations of reputation all became sites for shame s reconstruction making it thoroughly modern and in tune with twentieth century Britain s expectations Using a suite of detailed micro histories the book examines a wide expanse of twentieth century sites of shame including conceptions of cowardice conscientious objection during the First World War fraud and clerical scandal in the interwar years the shame associated with both abortion and sexual behaviour redefined in different ways as deviant shoplifting in the 1980s and lastly how homosexuality shifted from Coming Out to embracing Pride finally rediscovering the positivity of shame with the birth of the Queer

Silent Scream Angela Marsons, 2015-02-20 A Generation Abandoned Peter D. Beaulieu, 2017-04-26 A

Generation Abandoned explores the disruptive cultural events especially of the past half century as these have undermined the confidence of the young in themselves and in civil society and finally in our place in the universe The overall theme is the contrast between this sense of abandonment and our inborn and neglected orientation toward personal worth and the common good the natural law Much of what is peddled as social evolution today is shown to be a throwback to darker times The analysis submits to a refreshingly conversational tone but also draws incisively from a very broad pallet of history literature theater theology and simplifying and illuminating anecdotes some of them first hand An early chapter outlines the perfect storm of the 1960s Later chapters expose the word games of the cultural elite the saga of the family through history and now its abrupt erosion and the difference between any meandering arc of history and a more grounded arc of relations our rationalized culture of death versus a flourishing human ecology

The Bastard John Jakes, 2012-07-10 The first volume in the addictive saga of the American Revolution by the 1 New York Times bestselling author of the North and South trilogy Meet Phillipe Charboneau the illegitimate son and unrecognized heir of the Duke of Kentland Upon the Duke s death Phillipe is denied his birthright and left to build a life of his own Seeking all that the New World promises he leaves London for America shedding his past and preparing for the future by changing his name to Philip Kent He arrives at the brink of the American Revolution which tests his allegiances in ways he never imagined The first volume of John Jakes s wildly successful and highly addictive Kent Family Chronicles The Bastard is a triumph of historical fiction This ebook features an illustrated

biography of John Jakes including rare images from the author's personal collection Missing Links Jonneke Bekkenkamp, 2000 Are there missing links links that are easy to miss between art and religion and between the ways in which they respond to or partake of reality The hypothesis of this anthology is that these in fact do exist and its authors explore these links on the basis of a specific text or oeuvre a specific artwork or exhibition Following an introductory essay exploring the discussion on relating art and religion there are articles on Jannis Kounellis and Andrew Forster on plays by William Shakespeare Gerard Jan Rijnders and Anny van Hoof on an exhibition curated by Julia Kristeva There is an analysis of a novel by Frederic Buechner and one of the autobiographical writings of Dorothy Day Poems of M Vasalis and Judith Herzberg are considered along with the music of Olivier Messiaen and Plato's dialogue Sophist Hammer Complete Howard Maxford, 2019-11-08 Think you know everything there is to know about Hammer Films the fabled Studio that Dripped Blood The lowdown on all the imperishable classics of horror like The Curse of Frankenstein Horror of Dracula and The Devil Rides Out What about the company's less blood curdling back catalog What about the musicals comedies and travelogues the fantasies and historical epics not to mention the pirate adventures This lavishly illustrated encyclopedia covers every Hammer film and television production in thorough detail including budgets shooting schedules publicity and more along with all the actors supporting players writers directors producers composers and technicians Packed with quotes behind the scenes anecdotes credit lists and production specifics this all inclusive reference work is the last word on this cherished cinematic institution The Invention of Sicily Jamie Mackay, 2021-07-13 Sicily is at the crossroads of the Mediterranean and for over 2000 years has been the gateway between Europe Africa and the East It has long been seen as the frontier between Western Civilization and the rest but never definitively part of either Despite being conquered by empires Romans Byzantines Arabs Normans Hapsburg Spain it remains uniquely apart The island's story maps a mosaic that mixes the story of myth and wars maritime empires and reckless crusades and a people who refuse to be ruled In this riveting rich history Jamie Mackay peels away the layers of this most mysterious of islands This story finds its origins in ancient myth but has been reinventing itself across centuries in conquest and resistance Inseparable from these political and social developments are the artefacts of the nation's cultural patrimony ancient amphitheatres Arab gardens Baroque Cathedrals as well as great literature such as Giuseppe di Lampedusa's masterpiece The Leopard and the novels and plays of Luigi Pirandello In its modern era Sicily has been the site of revolution Cosa Nostra and in the twenty first century the epicentre of the refugee crisis The Invention of Sicily is a dazzling introduction to the island its history and its people National Union Catalog , 1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases
