

STORY TIME!

God Created the World (Genesis 1)

In the beginning God created the world. On day one God said, "Let there be light." God separated dark from light. On day two God made the beautiful sky. On day three God separated the seas from the dry land and covered the land with the plants and trees. On day four God filled the sky with sparkly things—the sun, the moon, and the stars.

On day five God made living creatures. He put swimming animals in the seas and made flying animals to fill the skies. Finally, on day six, God created all the land animals. He also made one man and one woman. God wanted the man and woman to take care of his world.

It took God six whole days to make everything. He looked around on the seventh morning, saw that his work was good, and decided to rest.

What Did You Learn?

Ask them these questions about the story:

- Who created the world?
- What are some things God created?
- What did God do on the seventh day?
