Southeast Asia Jonathan Rigg, 2004-08-02 The growth economies of Southeast Asia are presented by the World Bank and others as exemplars of development miracle economies to be emulated How did the region attain such status Are the other countries of Southeast Asia able to achieve such a rapid growth This book charts the development of Southeast Asia examining the economies of Vietnam Laos Cambodia and Burma alongside the established Asian market economies Drawing on case studies from across the region the author assesses poverty and ways in which the poor are identified and viewed Process and change in the rural and urban worlds are examined in detail focusing on the strengthening rural urban interaction as farmers make a living in the urban industrial sector and factories relocate into agricultural areas Giving prominence to indigenous notions of development based on Buddhism Islam and the so called Asian Way the author critically assesses the conceptual foundations of development ideas of post developmentalism and the miracle thesis In the light of the experience of one of the most vibrant regions in the world the book places emphasis on the process of modernization within wider debates of development and challenges the notion that development has been a mirage for many and a tragedy for some

Making Asian American Film and Video Jun Okada, 2015-03-06 The words Asian American film might evoke a painfully earnest low budget documentary or family drama destined to be seen only in small film festivals or on PBS Public Broadcasting Service In her groundbreaking study of the past fifty years of Asian American film and video Jun Okada demonstrates that although this stereotype is not entirely unfounded a remarkably diverse range of Asian American filmmaking has emerged Yet Okada also reveals how the legacy of institutional funding and the PBS style unites these filmmakers whether they are working within that system or setting themselves in opposition to its conventions Making Asian American Film and Video explores how the genre has served as a flashpoint for debates about what constitutes Asian American identity Tracing a history of how Asian American film was initially conceived as a form of public interest media part of a broader effort to give voice to underrepresented American minorities Okada shows why this seemingly well intentioned project inspired deeply ambivalent responses In addition she considers a number of Asian American filmmakers who have opted out of producing state funded films from Wayne Wang to Gregg Araki to Justin Lin Okada gives us a unique behind the scenes look at the various institutions that have bankrolled and distributed Asian American films revealing the dynamic interplay between commercial and state run media More than just a history of Asian Americans in film Making Asian American Film and Video is an insightful meditation on both the achievements and the limitations of institutionalized multiculturalism Asian Transformations Deepak Nayyar,2019 Including in depth contributions by eminent economists and social scientists Asian Transformations examines the phenomenal changes transforming economies in this continent and shifting the balance of economic power in the world while reflecting on the future prospects in Asia over the next twenty five years Asian American Racialization and the Politics of U.S. Education Wayne Au,2024-08-01 Asian American Racialization and the Politics of U S Education explores issues surrounding Asian American education in the United States and how they relate to educational theory policy and practice The book challenges stereotypes and assumptions that pervade U S education restores absent histories of Asian American people in this context and provides concrete examples of educational actions and policies that enable anti racist educational work to go on It argues that understanding Asian American racialization in the U S is essential to fighting white supremacy in schools and communities Utilizing frameworks from Asian American Studies and Cultural Studies this book will be important reading for those interested in doing anti racist liberatory and abolitionist educational work In particular it will be relevant for those working or researching in the fields of Asian American Education Multicultural Education Social Justice Education and Critical Education Asia in the Undergraduate Curriculum: A Case for Asian Studies in Liberal Arts Education Van Jay Symons,Suzanne Wilson Barnett,2016-07-08 The contributors place the development of Asian studies programs in small colleges in historical context make a compelling case for the inclusion of Asian studies in the liberal arts curriculum and consider the challenges faced in developing and sustaining Asian studies programs and ways of meeting such challenges now and in the future Master of the Grill America's Test Kitchen,2016-04-26 Part field guide to grilling and barbecuing and part cookbook Master of the Grill features a wide variety of kitchen tested recipes for meat poultry seafood vegetables pizza and more These are the recipes everyone should know how to make the juiciest burgers barbecue chicken that s moist not tough tender grill smoked pork ribs the greatest steak and grilled potatoes to serve alongside Regional specialties are included too learn how to make Cowboy Steaks Alabama BBQ Chicken and Kansas City Sticky Ribs Colorful photography captures the beauty of the recipes and step by step shots guide you through everything you need to know A section on grilling essentials covers the pros and cons of gas and charcoal grills and which might be right for you as well as the tools you ll use with them such as grill brushes tongs vegetable baskets and wood chips and chunks Asian Dumplings Andrea Nguyen,2011-03-22 The enhanced edition of Asian Dumplings offers an

Dire Straits-Education Reforms Montserrat Gomendio, José Ignacio Wert, 2023-02-14

Responding to an educational emergency generated largely by the difficulties of implementing education reforms this book compares education policies around the world in order to understand what works where To address the key question of why education reforms are so difficult the authors take into account a broad range of relevant factors such as governance ideology and stakeholder conflicts of interest and their interactions with one another Drawing on their experiences as policymakers in the Spanish government and as governmental advisors worldwide Montserrat Gomendio and Jose Ignacio Wert produce a publication like no other shifting the usual Eurocentric narrative and shedding light on frequently overlooked educational policies from elsewhere In this context they dive deeper into details of educational failures and successes the processes of implementation and investment priorities in different countries They provide revealing accounts of stakeholder conflicts of interest and the challenges of implementing educational reform during a financial crisis The authors also investigate why the evidence from international large scale assessments ILSAs has contrary to expectation not generated improvements in most education systems Gomendio and Wert investigate the evolution of different education systems closely examining their advances or declines Gomendio and Wert s expert voices illuminate the current state of global education systems and the necessary changes to ensure long awaited improvements This is a revelatory and informative resource for policymakers teachers and academics alike New Regionalisms in the Global Political Economy Shaun Breslin,2002

Following the financial crisis at the end of the twentieth century regionalisms in the global political economy have evolved in a number of ways This informative book brings together the leading scholars in the field to provide cutting edge analyses of contemporary regions and regionalist projects Providing an innovative integration of theoretical issues with sophisticated analyses of a wide range of international case studies the chapters systematically consider the relationship between globalization financial crisis and regional projects In combination the contributions to this volume provide the widest possible base within the literature for a truly comparative study of contemporary regionalism Connecting Asia Michael G.

Plummer,Peter J. Morgan,Ganeshan Wignaraja,2016-01-29 This book analyses how closer regional connectivity and economic integration between South Asia and Southeast Asia can benefit both regions With a focus on the role played by infrastructure and public policies in facilitating this process it provides a detailed and up to date discussion of issues innovations and progress Country studies of national connectivity issues and policies cover Bangladesh India Myanmar Nepal Sri Lanka and Thailand examining major developments in trade and investment economic cooperation the role of economic corridors and regional cooperation initiatives Thematic chapters explore investment in land and sea transport infrastructure trade facilitation infrastructure investment financing supporting national and regional policies and model based estimates of the benefits of integration They also identify significant opportunities for strengthening these integration efforts as a result of the recent opening up of Myanmar in political economic and financial terms For the first time for these regions the book employs a state of the art computable general equilibrium CGE model incorporating heterogeneous firms to estimate the advantages of integration Providing perspective on the latest thinking on integration policy Connecting Asia is an essential resource for academics policymakers and business people alike Contributors A Bayley T Chalermpanupap K Cheewatrakoolpong S Chirathivat M I Chowdhury M I Corpuz P De H Florento J F Gautrin F Hutchinson B Karmacharya R Mishra K G Moazzem P J Morgan N Perera M G Plummer M Rahman P B Rana S Ray F Sehrin T M M Than M Thuzar D Weerakoon D Wignall M Wignall G Wignaraja F Zhai The Political Economy of Asian Regionalism Giovanni Capannelli,Masahiro

Kawai,2014-01-23 This book contributes to the theoretical and empirical literature on Asian regionalism with a focus on the innovations needed to reform the current institutional architecture in Asia After reviewing the key issues and challenges related to the political economy of Asia's economic cooperation and integration the book discusses various aspects of regionalism from political and economic perspectives It looks at the rationale for regional collective action and reviews the trend of economic integration with a focus on the implications of the global financial crisis In addition to reviewing the key issues related to the development of regional institutions for integration the book analyzes issues such as trade and finance and deals with the implications of regionalism in terms of the introduction of domestic reforms in Asian countries before discussing the possible formation of a region wide economic community The eight chapters of the book are based on respective papers initially prepared for the Asian Development Bank Institute Conference 2010

The Asian Grandmothers Cookbook Patricia Tanumihardja, 2010-06-01 Asian grandmothers whether of Chinese Japanese Indonesian Vietnamese or Indian descent are the keepers of the cultural and culinary flame Their mastery of delicious home cooked dishes and comfort food makes them the ideal source for this cookbook Author Pat Tanumihardja has assembled 130 tantalizing dishes from real Chinese fried rice to the classic Filipino Chicken Adobo to the ultimate Japanese comfort dish Oyako donburi This is hearty food brightly flavored equally good to look at and eat Flavors range from soy and ginger to hot chiles fragrant curries and tart vinegars The author has translated all of the recipes to work in modern home kitchens Many of them have been handed down from mother to daughter for generations without written recipes and some appear in tested and written form for the first time An exhaustive Asian Pantry glossary explains the ingredients from the many kinds of rice and curries to unfamiliar but flavorful vegetables

Culinary Nationalism in Asia Michelle T. King, 2019-07-11 With culinary nationalism defined as a process in flux as opposed to the limited concept of national cuisine the contributors of this book call for explicit critical comparisons of cases of culinary nationalism among Asian regions with the intention of recognizing patterns of modern culinary development As a result the formation of modern cuisine is revealed to be a process that takes place around the world in different forms and periods and not exclusive to current Eurocentric models Key themes include the historical legacies of imperialism colonialism nationalism the Cold War and global capitalism in Asian cuisines internal culinary boundaries between genders ethnicities social classes religious groups and perceived traditions modernities and global contexts of Asian cuisines as both nationalist and internationalist enterprises and Asia itself as a vibrant culinary imaginary The book which includes a foreword from Krishnendu Ray and an afterword from James L Watson sets out a fresh agenda for thinking about future food studies scholarship
