

"Simplicity" by William Zinsser

William Zinsser in his essay, "Simplicity," describes the tendency people have to inflate their own words. A majority of us think that something is missing if a word or sentence is too simple causing us to add unnecessary information only to confuse our readers. Zinsser shows us examples of this in everyday life such as a simple letter, or a brochure by an insurance company, where the corporation uses a statement that overuses vocabulary to express something so simple. Zinsser observes that, "Clear thinking becomes clear writing; one can't exist without another", (Zinsser 175) His opinion on the key towards becoming an excellent writer is to take every sentence and to shorten it so that each word has its set function. As a writer, he believes the more clearheaded one is while constructing a piece of work, the better result they will receive. Writing is not as easy as it may seem. It can take several trials of perfecting one's work and more importantly revisions of one's thoughts like Zinsser's writing. The more conscious you become to your writing allows the writer to easily express their words and in society, good writing seems to be what lacks the most. Zinsser believes that a clear mind can positively impact your writing like a clear mind can affect your performance in everyday life. Sometimes, the more homework I have and the more hours I work, seem to build to my stress and negatively affect me in school. My weekly schedule is one that at times is pretty hectic. With school, work and friends, sometimes the juggling of the three seem to reach a boiling point. I currently work at a waitressing job in which the night shifts are usually the ones that benefit me the most. I attend school at Hunter College 4 days a week. Mondays and Thursdays from 8 am to 4 pm, while Tuesdays and Fridays are from 11 am to 1 pm. My work schedule is for the most part from Tuesday, Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays (mid day to late nights). Going to school four days a week and working 5-days a week is such a hassle in my life. I try to fit my social life in as well yet, sometimes it seems impossible. That's when I realize by not going out I might be jeopardizing my friendships. Working almost five days a week doesn't give me enough time for myself or the ability to focus more on school. I come home so late that I usually stay up studying till 2 or 3 in the morning but have to wake up by 6 am. I run on 3 or 4 hours of sleep which doesn't give me enough energy to function at my highest capability. About two weeks ago I reached a point in my life in which I was beginning to feel like a robot. On a Friday night, I came home from a long day at school, immediately headed to work knowing that I had two tests to study for Monday. Now I was scheduled to work the whole weekend on night shifts that I was struggling to figure out how I could possibly fit in time to study. I tried my hardest to study in between work breaks, but the environment around me was pretty hectic, that I accomplished nothing. On Saturday and Sunday, I woke up a little earlier to study, but time was passing by so fast that on both days I only accomplished an hour or two to memorize some material. I would rush each day to start getting ready for work and to call my cab to get there on time. That Sunday from work I got home at 2 am and studied an hour for history, until I fell asleep on my books. I instantly woke up, almost late for school, just in time to make it to my English class. I was so tired that I was straining to make my eyes remain open. I had a few school breaks in between my classes, but I knew that I couldn't memorize all these material for two different subjects the day of the test. Taking both of those tests, made me realize that not only did I fail, but I needed to make some changes in my life. My first priority is attending and excelling at school and juggling too many days at work with school is almost impossible to do. I knew I had to change my work schedule so that I have enough days to study and nights to rest in the future. In the end I knew it would work out even if I cut back on days to earn money, because my body and mind need to properly rest. We don't seem to realize but sometimes there are many unnecessary things we do that can easily be adjusted. Either working too much or spending time doing other activities can take up a lot of our energy. As Zinsser illustrates simplifying one's life or one's writing is possible and necessary at times, and if we all learned to do so life would be much easier.

Muller, Harvey S. Wiener, 2006 Textures Grace W. Ellis, 1993 The Short Prose Reader, 1991 Prose Models Gerald Levin, 1987 Containing over 110 selections by contemporary and classic writers PROSE MODELS is a rhetorical reader that covers the major elements of paragraph essay and methods of development with an emphasis on Argument and Persuasive writing Exploring Language Gary Goshgarian, 2001 Introduces writing at a level that is most appropriate and useful for college students Models for Writers Alfred Rosa, Paul Eschholz, 2012-02-01 It s a simple best selling combination that has worked for thousands of students short accessible essays and helpful thorough writing instruction Models for Writers continues to offer thought provoking selections organized to demonstrate not only the rhetorical patterns that students will use in their own essays but also the elements and language that will make those essays effective This edition offers more coverage of the key elements of academic writing including new strategies for writing a research paper and a section on writing a reflective essay Read the preface Collective Wisdom Sondra J. Stang, Robert Edward Wiltenburg, 1987 From the Preface This collection of lessons and assignments reflects our conviction that good teaching should make the composition classroom a place of initiation as well as instruction in which the teacher becomes the catalyst for a growing engagement with reading and writing showing students not only how to read and write but also why they should care about the whole enterprise In fulfilling this purpose most teachers act as practitioners not theorists or researchers and are habitually incorrigibly and in our view appropriately eclectic in their methods No theory can be adequate to all situations what most teachers want to know is What works The enthusiasm and generosity with which teachers all over the country have responded to our invitation to submit their best lessons and assignments indicates that this need is widely felt and we hope the collection will be of service not only to new teachers but also to experienced teachers who wish to keep their teaching fresh and effective In choosing the lessons we have welcomed widely different styles and strategies in teaching since we feel that good teaching in composition is necessarily more diverse and probably more difficult than in almost any other subject and that it grows out of a teacher's own instincts and experience Thus we endorse no single method or vocabulary but have tried to represent a range of temperaments approaches teaching levels student bodies and institutions We think that teachers of many kinds will find here material for inspiration instruction or emulation
