Wiatr, 2017-01-04 Do you believe you were born to change the world And do you think its actually possible These are two questions to ask yourself before you even read this book This is because this book is for those whose aim is to make a difference in this world Its for those who are unsatisfied with allowing darkness injustice and hopelessness to enslave people and who want to be part of a counter culture attack that brings true freedom Now is this book for you I will say this We need you We need as many people as we can get to join a generation that is called to action Do you know Jesus and are seeking what it means to follow Him in a deeper more radical way Are you looking for ways to make your faith come alive Do you want your life to have meaning Have you longed to see Gods kingdom come Is your soul hungry for more Will you be willing to give whatever it takes to see transformation come to you and the people around you In my own reflection to answer all these questions I believe there is a key It is something called holy passion Its a holy passion for Jesus that fills you and causes movement in ways you have never experienced before Embrace a new journey of holy passion in action It will be one you will never forget The Ruling Passion Christopher Lane, 1995 In The Ruling Passion Christopher Lane examines the

Barefoot,2023-11-16 The Drive In meaningfully contributes to the complex picture of outdoor cinema that has been central to American culture and to a history of US cinema based on diverse viewing experiences rather than a select number of films Drive in cinemas flourished in 1950s America in some summer weeks to the extent that there were more cinemagoers outdoors than indoors Often associated with teenagers interested in the drive in as a passion pit or a venue for exploitation films accounts of the 1950s American drive in tend to emphasise their popularity with families with young children downplaying the importance of a film programme apparently limited to old low budget or independent films and characterising drive in operators as industry outsiders They retain a hold on the popular imagination The Drive In identifies the mix of generations in the drive in audience as well as accounts that articulate individual experiences from the drive in as a dating venue to a segregated space Through detailed analysis of the film industry trade press local newspapers and a range of other primary sources including archival records on cinemas and cinema circuits in Arkansas California New York State and Texas this book examines how drive ins were integrated into local communities and the film industry and reveals the importance and range of drive in programmes that were often close to that of their indoor neighbours Crime of Passion
