Orthodoxy Benjamin P. Myers, 2020-12-17 What makes one poem better than another Do Christians have an obligation to strive for excellence in the arts While orthodox Christians are generally quick to affirm the existence of absolute truth and absolute goodness even many within the church fall prey to the postmodern delusion that beauty is in the eye of the beholder This book argues that Christian doctrine in fact gives us a solid basis on which to make aesthetic judgments about poetry in particular and about the arts more generally The faith once and for all delivered unto the saints is remarkable in its combined emphasis on embodied particularity and meaningful transcendence This unique combination makes it the perfect starting place for art that speaks to who we are as creatures made for eternity New Ideas in the Writing Arts Graeme Harper, 2013-08-19 New Ideas in the Writing Arts has come about because recent changes taking place in educational settings have influenced the ways in which learners and teachers are exploring Creative Writing The worldwide growth of Creative Writing as a formal subject of study in universities and colleges has generated explorations that appear now to be at
