Sherinian, Sarah L. Morelli, 2024 This book offers an inclusive lens through which to study the music and dance of South Asia its diasporas and the people who produce and use these cultural expressions Each chapter s central argument ties into a participatory exercise that provides active ways to understand and engage with cultural meaning Resonances of the Raj Nalini Ghuman, 2014 During the century of British rule of the Indian subcontinent known as the British Raj the rulers felt the significant influence of their exotic subjects Resonances of the Raj examines the ramifications of the intertwined and overlapping histories of Britain and India on English music in the last fifty years of the colonial encounter and traces the effects of the Raj on the English musical imagination Conventional narratives depict a one way influence of Britain on India with the discovery of Indian classical music occurring only in the post colonial era Drawing on new archival sources and approaches in cultural studies author Nalini Ghuman shows that on the contrary England was both deeply aware of and heavily influenced by India musically during the Indian British colonial encounter Case studies of representative figures including composers Edward Elgar and Gustav Holst and Maud MacCarthy an ethnomusicologist and performer of the era integrate music directly into the cultural history of the British Raj Ghuman thus reveals unexpected minglings of peoples musics and ideas that raise questions about Englishness the nature of Empire and the fixedness of identity Richly illustrated with analytical music examples and archival photographs and documents many of which appear here in print for the first time Resonances of the Raj brings fresh hearings to both familiar and little known musics of the time and reveals a rich and complex history of cross cultural musical imaginings which leads to a reappraisal of the accepted historiographies of both British musical culture and of Indo Western fusion Tawaifnama Saba Dewan, 2023-11-03 About the Book A NUANCED AND POWERFUL MICROHISTORY SET AGAINST THE SWEEP OF INDIAN HISTORY Dharmman Bibi rode into battle during the revolt of 1857 shoulder to shoulder with her patron lover Babu Kunwar Singh Sadabahar entranced even snakes and spirits with her music but eventually gave her voice to Baba Court Shaheed Her foster mothers Bullan and Kallan fought their malevolent brother and an unjust colonial law all the way to the Privy Council and lost everything Their great granddaughter Teema paid for the family s ruination with her childhood and her body Bindo Asghari Phoolmani Pyaari there are so many stories in this family And you one of the best known tawaifs of your times remember the stories of your foremothers and your own This is a history a multi generational chronicle of one family of well known tawaifs with roots in Banaras and Bhabua Through their stories and self histories Saba Dewan explores the nuances that conventional narratives have erased papered over or wilfully rewritten In a not so distant past tawaifs played a crucial role in the social and cultural life of northern India They were skilled singers and dancers and also companions and lovers to men from the local elite It is from the art practice of tawaifs that kathak evolved and the purab ang thumri singing of Banaras was born At a time when women were denied access to the letters tawaifs had a grounding in literature and politics and their kothas were centres of cultural refinement Yet as affluent and powerful as they were tawaifs were marked by the stigma of being women in the public gaze accessible to all In the colonial and nationalist discourse of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries this stigma deepened into criminalisation and the violent dismantling of a community Tawaifnama is the story of that process of change a nuanced and powerful microhistory set against the sweep of Indian history

Hindi Film Songs and the Cinema Anna Morcom, 2017-07-05 Since their beginnings in the 1930s Hindi films and film songs have dominated Indian public culture in India and have also made their presence felt strongly in many global contexts Hindi film songs have been described on the one hand as highly standardized and on the other as highly eclectic Anna Morcom addresses many of the paradoxes eccentricities and myths of not just Hindi film songs but also of Hindi cinema by analysing film songs in cinematic context While the presence of songs in Hindi films is commonly dismissed as purely commercial this book demonstrates that in terms of the production process musical style and commercial life it is most powerfully the parent film that shapes and defines the film songs and their success rather than the other way round While they constitute India's still foremost genre of popular music film songs are also situational dramatic sequences inherently multi media in style and conception This book is uniquely grounded in detailed musical and visual analysis of Hindi film songs song sequences and films as well as a wealth of ethnographic material from the Hindi film and music industries Its findings lead to highly novel ways of viewing Hindi film songs their key role in Hindi cinema and how this affects their wider life in India and across the globe It will be indispensable to scholars seeking to understand both Hindi film songs and Hindi cinema It also forms a major contribution to popular music popular culture film music studies and ethnomusicology tackling pertinent issues of cultural production multi media and the cross cultural use of music in Hindi cinema The book caters for both music specialists as well as a wider audience
