Stereotypical Australian Monologues:

Performing Indigenous Identities on the Contemporary Australian Stage Susanne Thurow, 2019-08-21 Over the past 50 years Indigenous Australian theatre practice has emerged as a dynamic site for the discursive reflection of culture and tradition as well as colonial legacies leveraging the power of storytelling to create and advocate contemporary fluid conceptions of Indigeneity Performing Indigenous Identities on the Contemporary Australian Stage offers a window into the history and diversity of this vigorous practice It introduces the reader to cornerstones of Indigenous Australian cultural frameworks and on this backdrop discusses a wealth of plays in light of their responses to contemporary Australian identity politics The in depth readings of two landmark theatre productions Scott Rankin's Namatjira 2010 and Wesley Enoch Anita Heiss I Am Eora 2012 trace the artists engagement with questions of community consolidation and national reconciliation carefully considering the implications of their propositions for identity work arising from the translation of traditional ontologies into contemporary orientations The analyses of the dramatic texts are incrementally enriched by a dense reflection of the production and reception contexts of the plays providing an expanded framework for the critical consideration of contemporary postcolonial theatre practice that allows for a well founded appreciation of the strengths yet also pointing to the limitations of current representative approaches on the Australian mainstage This study will be of great interest to students and scholars of Postcolonial Literary Performance and Theatre Studies A Portrait of the Artist as Australian Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2004 This book is the first critical assessment of Humphries entire oeuvre especially his career as an author Arguing that Humphries is one of Australia's greatest writers the author reveals a multi faceted artist whose success is rooted in the British music hall tradition Dadaism and grotesquerie Being Australian has also fundamentally shaped the performer and writer and the author's defence of Humphries against charges of expatriatism is pertinent to the debate on Australian national identity Australian Literary Studies, 2005 Contemporary Australian Playwriting Chris Hay, Stephen Carleton, 2022-11-29 Contemporary Australian Playwriting provides a thorough and accessible overview of the diverse and exciting new directions that Australian Playwriting is taking in the twenty first century In 2007 the most produced playwright on the Australian mainstage was William Shakespeare In 2019 the most produced playwright on the Australian mainstage was Nakkiah Lui a Gamilaroi and Torres Strait Islander woman This book explores what has happened both on stage and off to generate this remarkable change As writers of colour queer writers and gender diverse writers are produced on the mainstage in larger numbers they bring new critical directions to the twenty first century Australian stage At a politically turbulent time when national identity is fractured this book examines the ways in which Australia's leading playwrights have interrogated problematised and tried to make sense of the nation Tracing contemporary trends the book takes a thematic approach to the re evaluation of the nation that is dramatized in key Australian plays Each chapter is accompanied by a duologue between two of the playwrights whose work has been analysed to provide a dual perspective of
