Teaching Dilemmas and Solutions in Content-Area Literacy, Grades 6-12 Peter Smagorinsky, 2014-08-19 Because literacy is not just the English teacher's job Think literacy is just for English teachers Not anymore Nor should it be when you consider that each discipline has its own unique values and means of expression These days it's up to all teachers to communicate what it means to be literate in their disciplines Here finally is a book ambitious enough to tackle the topic across all major subject areas Engage in this cross disciplinary conversation with seasoned teachers and university researchers and learn how to develop curriculum and instruction that are responsive to students needs across English language arts science social studies mathematics visual space and music and drama Peter Smagorinsky and his colleagues provide an insider's lens on both the states of their fields and their specific literacy demands including Reviews of current issues and state of the art research informing literacy education Scenario based activities for reflection and discussion typifying the dilemmas and challenges faced by practicing teachers Considerations of the textual forms and conventions required in each discipline Specific policy recommendations Read this book on your own for immediate suggestions on how to improve literacy instruction within your course of study Better yet share it with colleagues and participate in a larger conversation about how your literacy expectations influence the ways students read and produce texts in other disciplines

Final Solutions Sabby Sagall, 2013-10-09 What causes genocide Through an examination of four modern genocides the Native Americans the Armenians the Jews and the Rwandan Tutsis Sabby Sagal formulates a theoretical framework for understanding some of the darkest hours of humanity Drawing on the scholarship of a range of Marxist psychoanalysts from the Frankfurt School to Wilhelm Reich shows how genocides are enacted by social classes or communities that have experienced isolation and denial of human needs prostration and humiliation at the hands of major historical defeats or powerlessness These denials or degradations produce severe reactions hatred destructiveness and an impotent rage which is often projected onto a perceived other Through close analysis and theorising of the commonalities and differences between recent genocides Sagal hopes to produce greater understanding of the socio psychological rationale behind atrocities in order to prevent recurrences

American History and National Security, 1989 Zombie History Peter Charles Hoffer, 2020-01-02 Fake history is not a harmless mistake of fact or interpretation It is a mistake that conceals prejudice a mistake that discriminates against certain kinds of people a mistake held despite a preponderance of evidence a mistake that harms us Fake history is like the Zombies we see in mass media for the fake fact like the fictional Zombie lives by turning real events and people into monstrous perversions of fact and interpretation Its pervasiveness reveals that prejudice remains its chief appeal to those who believe it Its effect is insidious because we cannot or will not destroy those mischievous lies Zombie history is almost impossible to kill Some Zombie history was and is political a genre of what Hannah Arendt called organizational lying about the past Its makers designed the Zombie to create a basis in the false past for particular discriminatory policies Other history Zombies are cultural They encapsulate and empower prejudice and stereotyping Still other popular history Zombies do not look disfigured but like Zombies walk among us without our realizing how devastating their impact can be Zombie History argues that whatever their purpose whatever the venue in which they appear history Zombies undermine the very foundations of disinterested study of the past
