that have the potential to destroy the nation. Morals guide humanity towards truth and civilization. The phenomenon of the dehumanization process in the industrial era that pushed people to be part of abstract societies tends to ignore humanity. The education process as a humanitarian system is increasingly marginalized especially during discussions about the industrial revolution. 4.0 and Society 5.0. The conference placed six sub themes for speakers and participants to share ideas namely Social Sciences and Laws, History and Cultural Studies, Interdisciplinary Studies, Morals and Humanities, Policy, Politics and Communication, Education. The committee has received 195 abstracts from prospective speakers. However, there are only 80 abstracts that are eligible to be presented at this conference.

Pulsipher, 2007-09-14. Shows how individuals are affected by and respond to economic, social and political forces at all levels of scale: global, regional and local. It offers an inclusive picture of people in a globalizing world: men, women, children, both mainstream and marginalized citizens, not as seen from a western perspective but as they see themselves. Core topics of physical, economic, cultural and political geography are examined from a contemporary perspective based on authoritative insights from recent geographic theory and examples from countries from around the world. Resources in Education
