No One Left Behind Darrell J. Fasching,2011-07-15 1 You have heard it said that on the day of judgment only Christians will be saved and all others will be consigned to eternal damnation but I say to you that the gospel proclaims salvation for the whole human race 2 You have heard it said that non Christians are strangers who will not enter the Kingdom of God but I say to you that God enters our lives through the very presence of the stranger 3 You have heard it said that heretics and sinners will have no place in the Kingdom of God but I say to you that to reject even the least of these is to reject God and Gods messiah 4 You have heard it said that human beings can be saved in no other name than that of Jesus but I say to you that the name Jesus means we are saved in the name of a God who cannot be named or imaged 5 You have heard it said that only a chosen remnant can be saved but I say to you that a saving remnant saves not itself but the whole human race of which it is a part 6 You have heard it said that in the final judgment many will be consigned to the eternal fires but I say to you Gods judgment is a refining fire which transforms and saves rather than destroys The final truth is that our God is the savior of the whole human race and especially all believers 1Timothy 4 10

Hispanic Muslims in the United States Victor Hugo Cuartas,2020-03-31 The empirical case in this study is that of the Hispanic Catholic converts to Islam in the Washington DC Metropolitan and New Jersey areas of the United States The central research question is To what extent do Hispanic Muslim converts play a role in making different choices regarding religious commitment and practice The argument is that not only do both the more and less active converts play a central role in making choices during the pre affiliation and post affiliation stages but that these choices can often be strategic in nature as they practice the new religion in the United States These choices are shaped by multiple factors This contributes to a new understanding of the prevailing debates among Muslims in Europe and the United States on the nature of Muslim minorities in the West that Muslims here are not merely transplanted but are active participants of diverse expressions of local Islam The evidence in my research shows that being less active does not mean converts do not play a role or make choices Both more active and less active converts make choices based on multiple factors This is especially significant as the main aim of this thesis is to show that the converts make choices and play a role in the post affiliation stage and that these often have strategic elements

Brecht, Reid B Locklin, 2015-12-07 This volume explores the twenty first century classroom as a uniquely intergenerational space of religious disaffiliation and questions about how our work in the classroom can be and is being re imagined for the new generation The culturally hybrid identity of Millennials shapes their engagement with religious others on campus and in the classroom pushing educators of comparative theology to develop new pedagogical strategies that leverage ways of seeing and interacting with their teachers and classmates Reflecting on religious traditions such as Islam Judaism African Traditional Religions Hinduism Christianity and agnosticism atheism this volume theorizes the theological outcomes of current pedagogies and the shifting contours of comparative theological discourse The Muslim Majority Robin Hadaway, 2021-09-15 More than 70 percent of Muslims worldwide practice folk Islam a syncretistic mix of theologically orthodox Islam and traditional religious beliefs and practices The Muslim Majority is unlike many published works on evangelism to Muslims which argue for either apologetic or contextualized bridge approaches These approaches are often ineffective in reaching adherents of popular Islam Instead author and missiologist Robin Hadaway outlines a contextual approach that addresses the unique perspective of popular Islam Hadaway explains the differences between folk Islam and orthodox Islam and explores best practices for reaching the vast majority of Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ
