Allan K. McDougall, Lisa Philips, Daniel L. Boxberger, 2018-03-15 The evolution of the Canada US borderland in the Pacific Northwest included the wholesale transformation of social organization and individual identities together with the redefinition and application of public power Before and After the State examines the impact of those changes across a region that already harboured a vibrant highly complex range of societies with dynamic local regional and global trade and kin networks Allan McDougall Lisa Philips and Daniel Boxberger explore fundamental questions of state formation social transformation and the re construction of identity to expose the narratives and other devices of nation building their impact on generations caught in the transition and the reverberations of those national myths that continue to the present Evil in Modern Myth and Ritual Richard Stivers, 2020-04-28 Richard Stivers concern is with the social construction of evil that is with how modern societies in a partly unconscious way create evil as a category of the sacred and how symbols myths and rituals of evil are related to this He is interested moreover in how modern societies provoke individuals to commit evil actions This fascinating and stimulating book is the first attempt to work out in detail how the concepts of the sacred symbol myth and ritual form a cultural configuration in modern technological societies and not just in traditional societies Peace Anatol Rapoport,2025-10-01 In Peace An Idea Whose Time Has Come noted mathematician and peace researcher Anatol Rapoport explores the evolution of the idea of peace and explains why it is displacing war as a viable institution Professor Rapoport ventures into uncharted philosophical territory by drawing on both the natural and the social sciences to trace the development of the ideas of war and peace He argues that the theory of evolution and processes analogous to natural selection can explain not only biological events but also the development of the institution of war Thus the clashes of armed hordes at the dawn of history were the ancestors of our present battles using automated weapons while Isaiah s prophecy of total disarmament And they shall beat their swords into ploughshares anticipates the resolutions of the United Nations Rapoport explains that although the institution of war enjoys a long history and continues to be a policy option today it may soon fall into disuse either by losing its relevance to modern life or by destroying the civilizations that practice it He then calls attention to ideas that lie dormant until people s ideational environment becomes receptive to their germination peace Anatol Rapoport believes is one such idea Peace continues in the interdisciplinary tradition that has taken root in inquiries at the nexus of science and philosophy No specific technical knowledge is expected of the reader only a willingness to venture into little charted areas of thought Words and Their Meaning Howard Jackson,2014-06-03 In this book the development of the English dictionary is examined along with the kinds of dictionary available the range of information they contain factors affecting their usage and public attitudes towards them As well as an descriptive analysis of word meaning the author considers whether a thematic thesaurus like presentation might be more suited than the traditional alphabetical format to the description of words and their meaning Signs & Symbols of the World D.R. Wohlforth, 2018-03-08 This Oxford Handbook is the definitive volume on the state of international security and the academic field of security studies It provides a tour of the most innovative and exciting news areas of research as well as major developments in established lines of inquiry It presents a comprehensive portrait of an exciting field with a distinctively forward looking theme focusing on the question what does it mean to think about the future of international security The key assumption underpinning this volume is that all scholarly claims about international security both normative and positive have implications for the future By examining international security to extract implications for the future the volume provides clarity about the real meaning and practical implications for those involved in this field Yet contributions to this volume are not exclusively forecasts or prognostications and the volume reflects the fact that within the field of security studies there are diverse views on how to think about the future Readers will find in this volume some of the most influential mainstream positivist voices in the field of international security as well as some of the best known scholars representing various branches of critical thinking about security The topics covered in the Handbook range from conventional international security themes such as arms control alliances and Great Power politics to new security issues such as global health the roles of non state actors cyber security and the power of visual representations in international security The Oxford Handbooks of International Relations is a twelve volume set of reference books offering authoritative and innovative engagements with the principal sub fields of International Relations The series as a whole is under the General Editorship of Christian Reus Smith of the University of Queensland and Duncan Snidal of the University of Oxford with each volume edited by a distinguished pair of specialists in their respective fields The series both surveys the broad terrain of International Relations scholarship and reshapes it pushing each sub field in challenging new directions Following the example of the original Reus Smit and Snidal The Oxford Handbook of International Relations each volume is organized around a strong central thematic by a pair of scholars drawn from alternative perspectives reading its sub field in an entirely new way and pushing scholarship in challenging new directions GATE Sociology [XH-C6] Sets of 2 Theory Books As Per Updated Syllabus, 2024-10-13 Covered All 8 Chapters as Per Updated Syllabus Theory Cover in Detail Elaborate Each Every Topic Use Digram to Explain Design by Expert Faculties Communication Yearbook 7 Robert N. Bostrom, 2011-10-25 First published in 2012 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Kyoto Manifesto for Global Economics Stomu Yamash'ta, Tadashi Yagi, Stephen Hill, 2018-02-19 This book confronts the failings of current global economics to deliver the equity sustainability and community empowerment which humanity now needs to handle a troubled future The volume proposes an economy built from our society not the other way around The Kyoto Manifesto was built layer by layer over a period of 4 years based on broad ranging international symposia held in Kyoto between 2014 and 2017 hosted by the Center for the Creative Economy Doshisha University Not stopping at theory and untested ideas however the Manifesto proposes practical action that will make a difference including in the problematic technological and ecological context of humanity s immediate and long term future The book is unique and innovative for it moves adventurously across very broad territory The Manifesto draws from world philosophic arguments including specifically a critique of liberalism further exploring sociology cultural anthropology politics primatology and early humanity even quantum physics Argument is set within mainstream post 1972 economics and political economics as well as direct practical experience working to empower disadvantaged communities through the United Nations Most importantly the book s analysis is deeply informed by the practice of searching for what is sacred the ultimate essence of our humanity what we can be as a human race empowered fulfilled individuals deeply sharing and caring for each other across our separate cultures and lives Stomu Yamashita s On Zen performances set the context for the Symposia bringing different religions and cultures together across their dividing boundaries into a coherent search for peace and harmony through sacred music Informed by alternate cultural paradigms for economics the book probes deeply into philosophies and practices that already exist within Eastern and Western societies and offer lessons for our future The result is an economics that stresses harmony with nature and balance in social relations It places an emphasis on community human sharing and trust as a platform for our future not separate from the global economy but integrated into its very foundations This is a book for all who care a plan for our sustainable future built from the best of what our humanity is and can offer Dictionary of Symbols J. C.

Cirlot,2006-10-19 The unvarying essential meanings of around 1 000 symbols and symbolic themes commonly found in the art literature and thought of all cultures through the ages are clarified ARCHAEOLOGY - Volume I Donald L.

Hardesty,2010-06-15 Archaeology is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias Archaeology is a road for traveling into the past that is independent of and complementary to documents and memory The archaeological record provides historical perspectives on variability and change in human life support systems with the potential for use in planning for future sustainable development The Theme is organized into four different topics which represent the main scientific areas of the theme Foundations of Archaeology The Archaeology of Life Support Systems World Cultural Heritage Preserving Archaeological Sites and Monuments which are then expanded into multiple subtopics each as a chapter The first topic deals with historical methodological and theoretical foundations of archaeology The second topic explores the archaeological record of human life support systems and includes chapters on foraging food production such as farming and nomadic lifestyles civilizations water management systems and sustainability World cultural heritage is the third topic Finally the fourth topic covers the preservation of cultural memorials such as archaeological sites landscapes and monuments These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional

Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers NGOs and GOs Human and Machine Perception Virginio Cantoni, Vito di Gesù, Alessandra Setti, Domenico Tegolo, 2012-12-06 The following are the proceedings of the Second International Workshop on Human and Machine Perception held in Trabia Italy on July 21-25 1996 under the auspices of two Institutions the Cybernetic and Biophysics Group GNCB of the Italian National Research Council CNR and the Centro Interdipartimentale di Tecnologie della Conoscenza of Palenno University A broad spectrum of topics are covered in this series ranging from computer perception to psychology and physiology of perception visual auditory tactile etc The theme of this workshop was Human and Machine Perception Information Fusion The goal of information and sensory data fusion is to integrate internal knowledge with complementary and or redundant information from many sensors to achieve and maintain a better knowledge of the environment The mechanism behind the integration of information is one of the most difficult challenges in understanding human and robot perception The workshop consisted of a pilot phase of eight lectures introducing perception sensorialities in nature and artificial systems and of five subsequent modules each consisting of two lectures dealing with solutions in nature and machines respectively and a panel discussion Strangers to Nature Gregory R. Smulewicz-Zucker, 2012-03-22 Strangers to Nature challenges a reading public that has grown complacent with the standard framework of the animal ethics debate Human influence on and the control of the natural world has greater consequences than ever making the human impact on the lives of animals more evident We cannot properly interrogate our conduct in the world without a deeper understanding of how our actions affect animals It is crucial that the human animal relationship become more central to ethical inquiry This volume brings together many of the leading scholars who work to redefine and expand the discourse on animal ethics The contributors examine the radical developments that change how we think about the status of non human animals in our society and our moral obligations Strangers to Nature will engage both scholars and lay people by revealing the breadth of theorizing about current human non human animal relationships The Age of Sutton Hoo M. O. H. Carver, 1992 The Age of Sutton Hoo runs from the fifth to the eighth century AD the age which separates the fall of the Roman Empire from the emergence of the nation states that have endured down to the present day This is a dark and difficult age where hard evidence is rare but glittering and richly varied myths king lists placenames sagas settlements runic inscriptions palaces belt buckles post holes middens and graves says the editor are all grist to our mill This volume celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the discovery of that most famous burial of the early middle ages the great treasure now in the British Museum unearthed from the centre of a ninety foot long ship buried in the sand beneath a mound on remote Suffolk heathland at Sutton Hoo It also marks the end of the major campaign of excavations carried out there over the past decade which involved the widest possible range of disciplines The scholars whose work is gathered here represent together with Martin Carver's concluding chapter summarising the results of the latest excavations the current state of knowledge about this extraordinary site that it still has secrets to reveal is shown by the last minute discovery of a striking
