Discontents Lee Ward,2020-06-23 Cosmopolitanism is one of the most venerable intellectual traditions in the history of political philosophy From the ancient Greek Diogenes claim to be a citizen of the world through to Kant's Enlightenment vision of a world government and even into our own time the idea of cosmopolitanism has stirred the moral imagination of many throughout history Arguably the Brexit referendum result and the election of Donald Trump in 2016 marked the first major public repudiation of the transnational globalizing cosmopolitan ideals that have arguably dominated politics in the liberal democratic West since the end of the Cold War This volume reconsiders cosmopolitanism and its discontents in the age of Brexit and Trump by bringing together the great thinkers in the history of political philosophy and contemporary reflections on the problems and possibilities of international relations human rights multiculturalism and regnant theories of democracy and the state The Idea of Europe Anthony Pagden,2002-04-04 The creation of the European Union and the progressive integration of the European states has raised serious questions about the existence of a distinctive European identity Do the British share much in common with the French or the French with the Danes Will a unified Europe remain an economic and political possibility with no greater cultural or affective foundations If there is something that distinguishes all Europeans what is it and how is it being changed by recent events This book addresses these questions in essays ranging from ancient Greece to the end of the twentieth century Their authors come from different intellectual backgrounds and represent differing intellectual traditions They discuss questions of politics religion commerce law language literature and affectivity Taken together they provide a powerful insight into the historical origins of the idea of Europe and into the future of the European Union World Civilizations Peter N. Stearns,2007 With 83 additional outline and four color maps World
