A Short History of Western Political Thought W. M. Spellman,2017-09-16 This brief narrative survey of political thought over the past two millennia explores key ideas that have shaped Western political traditions Beginning with the Ancient Greeks classical emphasis on politics as an independent sphere of activity the book goes on to consider the medieval and early modern Christian views of politics and its central role in providing spiritual leadership Concluding with a discussion of present day political thought W M Spellman explores the return to the ancient understanding of political life as a more autonomous sphere and one that doesn t relate to anything beyond the physical world Setting the work of major and lesser known political philosophers within its historical context the book offers a balanced and considered overview of the topic taking into account the religious values inherited ideas and social settings of the writers Assuming no prior knowledge and written in a highly accessible style A Short History of Western Political Thought is ideal for those seeking to develop an understanding of this fascinating and important subject Labour and the Environment United Nations Environment Programme,2007 This publication presents examples of the application of technical expertise of workplace participation and of tools that promote workers health and safety to problems that extend beyond the workplace into areas such as environmental protection public health and the accountability of employers It focuses on crucial issues ranging from climate change and energy chemicals management and corporate social responsibility and accountability to future involvement of workers and trade unions with the environment and with efforts to move towards sustainability Publishing Agency United Nations Environment Programme History and genealogies W.H. Miller,1907 History and genealogies of the families of Miller Woods Harris Wallace Maupin Oldham Kavanaugh and Brown with interspersions of notes of the families of Dabney Reid Martin Broadus Gentry Jarman Jameson Ballard Mullins Michie Moberley Covington Browning Duncan Yancey and Others Documentary, World History, and National Power in the PRC Gotelind Mueller,2013-10-30 Documentaries have recently become a favourite format for Chinese state directed media to present an officially sanctioned view of history Indeed this is not confined to Chinese national history In stark contrast to the earlier self centred preoccupation with Chinese history there has been an upsurge in interest in foreign history with a view to illuminating China s role not only in world history but also on the global stage today and in the future This book examines three recent Chinese documentary television series which present the officially sanctioned view of the rise of the modern West the reasons for the end of the Soviet Union and the legitimisation of the present day Chinese government via a specific reading of modern Chinese history to argue for a Chinese rise in the future With a focus on these documentaries Gotelind M ller discusses how history is presented on screen and explores the function of visual history for memory culture and wider society Further this book reveals how the presentation of Chinese and foreign history in a global framework impacts on the officially transmitted views on Self and Other and thus provides a keen insight into how the Chinese themselves regard their global rise Documentary World History and National Power in the PRC will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a number of fields including Chinese studies East Asian studies media studies television studies history and memory studies Troubled Apologies Among Japan, Korea, and the United States Alexis Dudden,2014-03-04 Whether it s the Vatican addressing its role in the Second World War or the United States atoning for its treatment of native Hawai ian islanders apologizing for history has become a standard feature of the international political scene As Alexis Dudden makes clear interrogating this process is crucial to understanding the value of the political apology to the state When governments apologize for past crimes they take away the substance of apology that victims originally wanted for themselves They rob victims of the dignity they seek while affording the state a new means with which to legitimize itself Examining the interplay between political apology and apologetic history Dudden focuses on the problematic relationship binding Japanese imperialism South Korean state building and American power in Asia She examines this history through diplomatic cultural and social considerations in the postwar era and argues that the process of apology has created a knot from which none of these countries can escape without undoing decades of mythmaking

Fisheries Regulation in the Central Arctic Ocean Lena J. Haas, 2024-12-30 The 2018 Agreement to Prevent Unregulated High Seas Fisheries in the Central Arctic Ocean CAOF Agreement is a unique international treaty It sets up conditions for potential future commercial fisheries in the central Arctic Ocean furthered by climate change until ecosystem dynamics are well understood As a product of balancing interests of various stakeholders after a multi year drafting process the agreement protects both fish stocks and the environment Based on international maritime law scientific research and principles of international environmental law such as the precautionary approach it sets a precedent for future fisheries agreements
